Monday Night Bridge Club Is Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. John Honeycutt were hosts at a pretty small party on Monday evening at their home on W. Warren street when they entertained members of the Monday night bridge club.

An attractive arrangement of spring flowers was used in decorating the home. The Easter season was observed in the decorative touch on refreshment plates when a salad and sweet course was served. When scores were added at the close of the play the high score prizes were awarded to Mrs. R. H. Cooke and Carlos Grigg.

Mrs. Carpenter Has Anniversary Luncheon

Mrs. C. C. Carpenter celebrated her wedding anniversary yesterday when she entertained a number of friends at a bridge luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Shull on N. LaFayette street. The luncheon was served buffet style and afterward bridge and rook were played during the afternoon. The high score prize in bridge was won by Mrs. H. M. Faggart of Charlotte and the high score prize in rook by Mrs. Ed Post.

The table was beautiful with a flower centerpiece of jonquils and baby's breath.

Out-of-town guests present were Mrs. H. M. Faggart, Mrs. R. B. Brown and Mrs. Hunter, all of Charlotte, and Mrs. Miller Reid of Concord.

Shelby Mill Woman's Club Holds Meeting

(Special to The Star.) The Shelby Mill Woman's club held its regular meeting on last Friday evening in the club rooms of the community house with Mrs. A. Chandler and Mrs. S. J. McSwain as hostesses.

The meeting was opened with a song. During the program hour Mesdames B. G. Queen, Charlie Mode and Clarence Williams exhibited some of their needle work. Mrs. R. L. Ledbetter and Mrs. Walter Sisk gave some helpful hints on house and garden. Miss Margaret Anthony discussed the importance of the right kind of food. The club will study food for the next few weeks.

Mrs. Chandler assisted by Mrs. M. B. Brannon served delicious refreshments during the social half hour.

Shower Given For Mrs. Fay Ledford

(Special to The Star.)

Misses Mary Grace and Helen Ledford were hostesses at an enjoyable party and shower, honoring Mrs. Fay Ledford on Tuesday evening from 8 to 10 o'clock, at their home on North LaFayette street.

Bride's dice was played at 10 tables and several contests were solved. Miss Faye Dellinger was the winner of the high score prize at bride's dice. Each guest was given a little white wedding bell in which she was asked to write her best wishes to the bride. These were presented the bride at the close of the evening.

A tempting sweet course with nuts was served in the dining room by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Tom Roberts, Misses LaLene Grigg, Sara Bess Ledford and Helen Wells.

Crystal bowls of jonquils were in harmony with the color scheme of yellow and green carried out in the refreshments.

The guests were invited into the gift room where a shower of beautiful gifts surprised and delighted the bride.

Mothers Club With Mrs. Dudley

Mrs. J. G. Dudley, jr., was hostess on Tuesday afternoon to members of the Mothers club, entertaining at the Beldo Tea room on W. Warren street. The room was attractively decorated with a mixture of spring flowers.

Mrs. D. R. Yates, president, was in charge. After a business session the meeting was turned over to the leader, Mrs. Fred Baber. The subject for study was "Determining Influences in Your Child's Life." The first paper, given by Mrs. B. E. Matthews, was on "How the Movies Harm Your Child." Mrs. Yates entertained with a reading, "When Your Pa Comes Home." Another paper, "Parents Who Are Good Sports," was read by Mrs. Robert Wilson. The program was concluded with two solos, "Calvary" and "Sonny Boy" by Mrs. P. C. Gardner. A delicious salad and sweet course was served, the Easter idea being carried out on the plates.

Invited guests present, outside the club membership, were: Mrs. J. G. Dudley, sr., Miss Elizabeth Dudley, Mrs. Dick Dudley, Mrs. Carl Hanson, of Montevideo, Minn., Mrs. Griffin P. Smith, Mrs. Bill Webb, Mrs. Herbert Whisonant, and Mrs. J. J. Owens.

C. D. Thackston, Jr. Celebrates Birthday

Clyde David Thackston, jr., only son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Thackston, celebrated his third birthday on Friday afternoon, March 16 from 3:30 to 5 with a pretty party. About 20 of his friends were present. The little guests were received at the door on their arrival by Mrs. Thackston and Mrs. H. E. Waldrop, mother and grandmother of the young host. When all were present they were entertained with stories and picture rhymes by Mrs. W. A. Hanks. An Easter egg hunt and various games were enjoyed in the yard.

Near the close of the afternoon the children were invited into the dining room where the pretty birthday cake, decorated with three lighted candles, centered the table. The decorative motif was in keeping with the Easter season. A delicious ice course was served.

David received a collection of attractive gifts.

The invited guests included: Barbara Hanks, Betty Joyce Beck, Marjorie Dean Hill, Eloise Blackwelder, Dovie Lee Morrison, Elise Dean, Marjorie and Emily Bulce, Bobby Jo McSwain, David and Billy Pagram, Tommy Abernethy, Hal Mabry, Bobby Litton, Ben and Kennon Blackwelder and Howard Spry, jr.

An interesting fact about the young host is that he is the only child of his parents, an only grandchild of his grandparents and an only great grandchild of his great grandparents in the families of both his mother and father.

Snakes At Museum Assured Of Eating

Raleigh, March 20.—Five small ground snakes presented to the North Carolina museum by Mrs. A. W. McLean, of Lumberton, a former first lady of the state, will be fed to the copperhead moccasins on exhibit at the museum.

The moccasins have not eaten for four or five months and they are very, very hungry. Feeding time is due in two or three weeks and the McLean snakes will be laid on the altar of economy at that time.

Open Tick Campaign In Montana Fields

Hamilton, Mont., March 20.—The annual wood tick harvest is under way in Bitter Root valley.

In order that persons as far away as San Paulo, Brazil, may be safeguarded against spotted fever, workers are collecting the minute but active tick whose own virus is employed to combat the disease it spreads.

Armed only with sticks from which are suspended white flannel cloths, the workers are scratching through the grass and brush for the insects. The ticks attach themselves to the cloths as they are dragged over the ground.

After the harvest comes the tedious process in which Dr. E. R. Parker, head of the United States health laboratories and his force, utilize the dead tick virus for the Rocky Mountain spotted fever vaccine, a preventative.

Play At No. 3 School On Thursday Evening

Given By Community Classes Conducted By Miss Honeycutt Under CWA.

"He's My Pal," a comedy drama in three acts will be given in the No. 3 high school auditorium Thursday evening, March 22nd at 7:30 by Earl Community Players. It is a gripping story of two boys who are rivals for the same girl. Should one of them give up the girl he loves to the friend who saved his life?

The play is being given in one of the community classes conducted by Miss Christine Honeycutt under the CWA. The characters are all well suited to their parts. Comedy is furnished by the pranks of two busy real estate salesman, and by the domestic quarrels of the wealthy Mrs. Money and her hen-pecked husband.

The proceeds will be used to improve educational or recreational facilities of the community.

Sponsor Minstrel At Piedmont High

The P. T. A. of Piedmont school is sponsoring a negro minstrel at the high school building on Friday night at 8:00 o'clock. A full evening of entertainment is assured. A small admission price will be made. The proceeds will be used to buy books for the elementary library.
