Jacqueline Fair Smith Celebrates 10th Birthday

(Special to The Star.) Jacqueline Smith, little daughter of Mrs. Thelma Hopper Smith, celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary on Saturday afternoon, from 5:30 to 7:30 with a pretty party at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Major Hopper, on N. Lafayette street. About 40 of her friends were present.

The little hostess was lovely in a long blue organdy dress, with pink slippers and accessories. The children were entertained with games and contests, played in the yard under the direction of the hostess' mother and her aunt, Miss Ruth Hopper. Those winning prizes were Phyllis Yates, Sarah Mull and Clyde Wall.

At the close of the games the children were invited into the dining room where the pretty birthday cake, decorated with 10 pink, lighted candles, centered the table. Here delicious strawberry ice cream, cakes, candy and fruit punch were served.

The children then visited the fish ponds where each child fished for a souvenir of the party.

Jacqueline received a collection of attractive and useful gifts.

Cecelia Club To Lincolnton

Members of the Cecelia Music club and the Lincolnton music club met on Saturday afternoon at the annual get-together meeting at the home of Mrs. M. L. Little in Lincolnton, when the Lincolnton club acted as hostesses to the local group.

Iris and other spring flowers were used as decorations for the home, and the color note of orchid and green was carried out in the elaborate refreshment course served.

Eighteen members of the Cecelia club were present and the following program was presented: Double quartets, "Indian Dawn" and "Lassie of Mine" by Mrs. Grady Lovelace, Mrs. John Lovelace, Mrs. L. P. Holland, Mrs. George Hoyle, Mrs. Ruth Thompson, Mrs. B. M. Jarrett, Mrs. W. B. Nix and Mrs. Dale Kalter; piano solos, "Gondola" and "Hungarian," by Miss Esther Anne Quinn, guest performer; two choruses, "The Years At The Spring" and "Glow Worm" by the entire club; vocal solo, "My Heart Ever Faithful," by Mrs. Kalter; a trio, Kreisler's "Cradle Song" by Mrs. Ben Suttle, Mrs. B. M. Jarrett and Miss Bertha Boetic; violin solos, "Melodie Du Coeur" and "Perpetual Motion," by Mrs. Dwight Houser; vocal solo, "Nn Sospiro Concerto Etude" by Miss Mary Helen Lattimore and a chorus, "Swing Along" by the entire club.

Miss Lattimore acted as piano accompanist for all the numbers.

Junior-Senior Banquet On Friday Evening

Members of the junior class at Shelby high school entertained members of the senior class and the faculty on Friday evening at the church, which was elaborately decorated in keeping with the theme of the party, "Launching the Senior Ship of Dreams."

Three long tables were arranged banquet style with covers laid for 165 guests. A ship model centered each table, and lighted candles and bowls of mixed flowers further decorated the tables. Large bowls and baskets of weigela, azalea, and iris were placed about the room. Streamers of colorful pennants and ship's flags were draped across the room above the tables.

Mrs. Troy McKinney, English teacher in the high school and junior class sponsor, assisted the class in planning the party and in entertaining.

A three course dinner was served by a group of girls selected from the sophomore class. These girls, dressed in white sailor-maid costumes, were: Eleanor Hoey, captain of the group, Gwyn Davis, Marjorie Lutz, Ruth Byers, Louise Whitener, Germaine Gold, Annabeth Jones, Elizabeth Harris, Alphonsine Harris, Jane Washburn, Pantha Weathers, Ottilie White, Frances Eess, Juanita Eskridge, Jeanette Post, Louise Brown and Gladys Bland. Three girls of this group, Eleanor Hoey, Ruth Byers and Louise Whitener, also have had the honor of being elected to serve as commencement marshals.

The following program was presented: The entire group sang "Nancy Lee"; Garnelle Duncan, a junior, made a speech of welcome; Marion Bass, also a junior, gave a toast to the school, response to which was made by Walter Abernethy, high school principal. Clyde Williams, junior class president, gave a toast to the seniors and Paul Bullington, senior president, responded. Hill Hudson, a junior, gave a toast to the faculty and response was made by Miss Ethel Thomas, senior advisor. Members of the junior class sang a song to the seniors; the song was composed by Marilyn Smith. Will Arey, Jr., gave the toast to the school board, response to which was made by Thad Ford, as representative of the board. Ellie McKinney, a junior, entertained with a reading, "Lily Waters Buys Insurance," and a double quartet, "Sweet and Low," was sung by a group of juniors. The program was concluded with the singing of the school song by the entire group. Favors were presented to the guests, and music was furnished during the evening by Jeanette Post and Ottilie White.

Beautiful Wedding Friday Evening

A wedding of unusual beauty was solemnized here on Friday evening at 6 o'clock when Miss Abbie Jane Wall and John Oliver Harris were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Zeno Wall, on W. Marion street. The beautiful and impressive ring ceremony was used, with the Rev. Dr. Wall performing the ceremony in the presence of a small gathering of friends and relatives. The marriage took place on the 23rd wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.
