RUTH CLASS GIVES SHOWER FOR MRS. STUART

Members of the Ruth class of the First Baptist church held their regular monthly meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Raymond Carroll on which occasion they gave a shower for Mrs. Oscar Stuart, one of their members, who before her recent marriage was Miss Elizabeth Spangler.

After a short business session a social hour was enjoyed, during which the shower of useful kitchen gifts was presented the bride. Mrs. Carroll served a refreshing ice and sweet course after which the group accompanied Mrs. Stuart to her apartment where she opened and displayed the gifts.

MARJORIE FRANCES BEAM HAS PARTY

Little Miss Marjorie Frances Beam, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Beam, entertained a number of friends last Friday afternoon at a pretty party in celebration of her seventh birthday. She was dressed for the occasion in a dainty party frock of pink georgette with pink hair ribbon and socks.

Thirty-five guests were present. Games were played in the living room for an hour after which the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. The birthday cake with its seven candles decorated the table and a quantity of pink roses were used in decorating the room.

Ice cream and cake were served. Miss Ruth Beam assisted Mrs. Beam in entertaining and serving.

CONTEMPORARY CLUB ENTERTAINED TUESDAY

Members of the Contemporary book club enjoyed an interesting meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Everett Houser. Mrs. Ben E. Hendrick, vice president, presided over the business meeting, and introduced the program with a few interesting remarks on the history of the Readers' Digest and its present status as a magazine. The program hour was devoted to a round table discussion of articles of interest in a current issue of the Readers' Digest. The discussion was led by Mrs. Alton Kirkpatrick.

Miss Martha Mock, of Waynesville, sister of Mrs. Kirkpatrick, who was a club visitor, made an interesting contribution to the program.

Mrs. Houser was assisted by Mrs. Oliver Anthony in serving simple refreshments.

PICNIC SUPPER IN HONOR OF VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Blair Tucker, of Louisville, attractive house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Nash this week, were complimented last evening at an enjoyable party when Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hudson entertained for them at a picnic supper at their home on Grover street. The supper was arranged caterteria style on tables in the backyard and after the guests were served they found seats around the pretty lily pool where they enjoyed the meal and an hour of companionship following it. Miss Fannie Mae Hudson assisted her mother in serving.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hudson were: Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Morris and guest, Miss Dorothy Clement of Greensboro, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Anthony and guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Martin of Greenville, S. C., and Mrs. Renn Drum.

PARTIES YESTERDAY FOR MRS. WILSON

Mrs. C. A. Wilson of Monroe who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dan Frazier, here this week was entertained at two pretty parties yesterday. In the morning, at 10:30 Mrs. Frazier entertained members of the Contract bridge club in her honor at a bridge luncheon. Guests were invited for two tables of bridge. Mrs. Ben Hendrick won the high score and a pretty guest prize was given to Mrs. Wilson.

An elaborate two course luncheon was served.

Guests outside club members were: Mrs. Rob Laney, Mrs. B. W. Dickson, Mrs. J. S. Dorton, Mrs. Norris Lackey and Mrs. Carl Wray Webb.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. S. Dorton entertained in Mrs. Wilson's honor at two tables of bridge. After an hour's play scores were added and the prize for high score went to Mrs. B. O. Stephenson. Mrs. Wilson received an honor gift. A tempting salad course with accessories was served. Salad and canapes were served by the hostess from large silver trays on which they were prettily arranged.

MRS. WOODSON HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

Members of the South Washington bridge club were entertained on Thursday afternoon, at a pretty small party when Mrs. Harry Woodson was hostess at her home on Cleveland Springs road.

The living room, decorated with summer flowers, was the setting for three tables of bridge. The two high score prizes went to Mrs. William Andrews for members and to Mrs. R. W. Morris for visitors.

Miss Dorothy Clement of Greensboro, guest of Mrs. Morris, was an out-of-town visitor present.

A salad course with accessories was served at the close of the afternoon.

EAST SHELBY CLUB HOLDS MEETING

A regular meeting of the East Shelby club was held on Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. E. G. Gladden when Mrs. Clyde Thackston, Mrs. Grady Bright, Mrs. D. M. Crow and Mrs. Bob Stephenson were joint hostesses. The home was prettily decorated for the occasion with mixed spring flowers.

A short business session opened the meeting after which Miss Margaret Anthony taught the afternoon's lesson on "Sex Education in the Home" from literature furnished by the state board of health at Raleigh.

At the close of the program hour the hostesses served ice cream and cake.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Clyde Thackston on W. Warren street on Monday, June 11.

MISS BOSTICK'S PUPILS IN MUSIC RECITAL

Miss Bertha Bostick presented her Lattimore and Shelby music pupils in recital on Tuesday evening. A beautiful program of piano and vocal numbers was given. The stage was artistically decorated with trellises and roses to represent a garden scene.

The opening number was a chorus "Primrose Flower" by all the Lattimore and Shelby classes, and other numbers were: "Spring Song" by Virginia, Mary and Martha Toms; Selma Hamrick, Evelyn Wiggins and Miss Bostick; "Arrival of the Brownies" by Helen Saunders; "The Contented Bird" by Mary Lee Wiggins; "Con Amore" by Martha Toms; "Singing and Swinging" by Helen Saunders, and Rebekah Putnam; "The Water Mill" by Carolyn Hawkins; "Frolic of the Frogs" by Thomas Fetzer; "La Stella" by Mary Toms; "Waltz of the Flower Fairies" by Shirley Philbeck; "Dip Boys, Dip the Oars," a chorus by eight boys; "May Time" by Carolyn Hawkins and Shirley Philbeck; "Frolic in the Forest" by Rebekah Putnam; "March of the Flower Girls" by Selma Hamrick; "Dance of the Brownies" by Evelyn Wiggins; "First Movement of Sonata and Fugue" by Margaret Lee Liles and Miss Bostick; "April Showers" by Jane Washburn; "Sleep, Baby Sleep," a chorus sung by fourteen little girls; "The Music Box" by Virginia Toms; "Whispering Wind" by Ruby Morgan; "Der Freischutz" by Margaret Lee Liles; and "Invitation to the Dance" by Jane Washburn and Ruby Morgan.
