

Dr. Morse Is Head Of Booster Group

Clyde Hoey Of Shelby Is Made A Member Of Board Of Directors.

Dr. L. B. Morse of Chimney Rock, who has spent many years in an effort to attract additional travel to the Carolinas, was named president of The Carolinas, Inc., at a meeting in the Charlotte hotel yesterday for organization of the new agency.

Nearly 100 business, professional and civic leaders of North Carolina and South Carolina attended the meeting and took part in formal organization of the body which will serve as a co-ordinating agency in disseminating accurate and thorough information regarding the historical, recreational, scenic, industrial and agricultural advantages of the two states.

Six vice presidents, three from each state, were elected by the directors as follows: J. E. L. Wade of Wilmington; Earl H. Spence, of Greensboro; Edgar H. Tufts of Banner Elk; M. L. McCrae of Charleston; John K. DeLoach of Camden; and Samuel M. Wolfs of Gaffney. Coleman W. Roberts of Charlotte, president of the Carolinas Motor club, was elected executive vice president and J. Frederick Kistler of Morganton was elected treasurer. K. F. Floyd of Charlotte was elected as acting secretary pending election of a permanent secretary. Temporary headquarters will be maintained in the Carolina Motor club building at 409 South Tryon street. Governors of the two states will serve as honorary presidents.

Clyde R. Hoey of Shelby was elected one of the members of the board of directors.

Mr. Roberts was authorized to proceed immediately with the publication of 1,000,000 stamps which will be offered for sale through worthy charitable, benevolent and fraternal organizations in order to raise funds necessary for carrying on the work. All purchasers of stamps to the amount of one dollar or more will be issued a certificate denoting the purchaser as a "Carolina Crusader."

Urge Preparation Of Fair Exhibits

Dates For Colfax Free Fair Set; Officials Want Exhibits Prepared.

(Special to The Star.) ELLENBORO, June 20.—With amusement devices booked for the Colfax Free Fair to be held at Ellenboro on its regular dates in September ending on the fifteenth, the officers and directors of the fair urge Ellenboro and other people who desire to exhibit to begin the preparation of their exhibits now, and thereby insure success for themselves and help to make the fair bigger and better.

Within the next month most of the canning should be done for the canned goods department. Many of the field and garden seeds should be planted to come in at the time of the fair. Then, articles for the fancy work department should be begun.

The fair association plans to offer more and bigger cash prizes this year which should increase both the quantity and quality of the exhibits.

With the completion of the gymnasium on the Ellenboro school grounds a better and more appropriate exhibit hall will be ready for the 1934 Colfax Free fair.

Mothers Watch Your Children

Now that school is out and vacation time is here, perhaps they need this tonic to cleanse their system of all the germs and poisons that have accumulated during the winter months. Nature's great medicine, "Vim Herb" is said to be the most agreeable system cleanser and tonic builder on the market. Don't wait until they are sick to begin treatment. Watch the youngster. If they seem cross and unruly, don't spank—they probably are not well. Watch for the coated tongue, yellow complexion, bad breath, lack of interest, and restlessness at night. These symptoms indicate that something is wrong. Don't neglect them, do as thousands of other North and South Carolina mothers have done. Note how quickly a few doses will put roses in their cheeks and give them vim, vigor and vitality. Absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Talk with the vim Herb man at Cleveland Drug Co., ad.

Young Democrats Planning To Hot Spot Mr. Bailey

RALEIGH, June 20.—Josiah W. Bailey, senior North Carolina senator, is expected to be put on a "hot spot" when, if it has not already been done, Mrs. May Thompson Evans, president of the North Carolina Young Democratic clubs, asks him to extend an invitation to Under-secretary of Agriculture Rexford G. Tugwell to address the group's convention in Asheville on July 21, tentative date.

Mrs. Evans announced some time ago, while some of the trouble over the elevation of Mr. Tugwell from assistant to "under" secretary was brewing, that the young Democrats expect to invite him to speak, the uncertainty coming because of the uncertainty of his position when the senate finished with him. He received the approval of that body and now the uncertainty has disappeared.

But it places Senator Bailey in a peculiar position. He it was who more than anyone else, except Senator Smith, of South Carolina, opposed the appointment and confirmation by the senate of Mr. Tugwell, one of President Roosevelt's prominent "brain-trusters." Senator Bailey gave Mr. Tugwell a very thorough examination, raking up some dead coals in his writings of some years ago to bolster up charges that he was inclined to communism and therefore dangerous. But Mr. Tugwell came through and the Young Democrats are certain, it is intimated, to ask him to invite Mr. Tugwell to come to Asheville.

The Young Democrats, when they first organized in the state, were looked upon as seeking to change the old order and bring about a new day, and were charged with opposing that representative of the old order, Senator Simmons, and favoring, in contrast, the new order, as typified by Senator Bailey. The first Jackson Day dinner of the group came in the heat of the Simmons-Bailey campaign, or after it was well under way, and the Simmons followers looked askance at the gathering. But the same Young Democrats seem to have no qualms at putting Senator Bailey in a difficult position by asking him to invite and urge Mr. Tugwell to address their next convention. How Senator Bailey will handle the assignment will be interesting to watch.

Determine Teacher Load For 1934-35 In State Capital Today

RALEIGH, June 21.—The state school commission will meet here at 10 o'clock Friday to set the teacher load for the 1934-35 session and to make definite teacher allotment to the various school units, Leroy Martin, secretary to the commission, announced yesterday.

The average attendance at North Carolina schools in the 1933-34 session was higher than for the preceding year, late reports accounting for the increase. The commission, on the basis of early reports showing smaller attendance figures, had reduced the elementary teacher load slightly, but that action is expected to be rescinded Friday.

The average attendance for the past season was 740,000, Mr. Martin said. Reports from three county units and seven city units are yet to be received before final figures can be announced.

Farmers To Name Tag Representative

COLLEGE STATION, Raleigh, June 21.—Cotton county farm agents have been asked to name a reliable person, preferably a cotton farmer, to apply the bale tags to all cotton produced previous to June 1.

Every bale of cotton must be tagged to show when it was produced and by whom. Every tag must be accounted for, and the work should be done as speedily as possible, said Charles A. Sheffield, director of the cotton program of North Carolina.

Two or more men will be employed if necessary to get the tagging completed before time to pick the new crop. The pay will be $7 a day for the actual time spent at work. Application blanks for bale tags will be sent the agents soon.

Doctor Goes To Bat With Death And Saves Baby

NEW YORK, June 21.—Life and death played ball Monday with the tender body of a six-pound baby girl until medical science stepped in to pinch-hit with the score nothing to nothing, and knocked death right out of the box.

As Dr. Bernard Zaglin swung his forceps in an operating room of the Gramercy hospital, Mrs. Esther Rauch's newly delivered baby turned black, accidentally strangled by the umbilical cord.

Dr. Zaglin reached for a hypodermic needle. Into baby's heart gently he plunged adrenalin chloride, into the baby's thigh, alpha tobin. Onto the baby's mouth he placed his own rendering artificial respiration. In three hours the baby was alive, and will continue so, he hopes.

Without Impurities ... DEATH!

"A Pure Food and Drug Act for plants would be a death warrant to all living creatures."
—SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN

READ the above statement again. It seems strange. Yet no truer words have ever been written. If all impurities were eliminated from the soil, no man, no beast, no living thing, could stay alive.

Chilean Natural Nitrate, for many years, has stressed the importance of its Nature-given impurities. This magic plant food is the only nitrogen that comes from the ground. It is the only nitrate that contains Nature's blend of rare elements. . . Nature's own balance of vital impurities.

So you see the importance of protecting yourself by specifying Chilean when you buy nitrate. There are two kinds, Champion Brand (granulated) and Old Style. Both are genuine Chilean. Both are natural. Both have the vital impurities. You are safe with either one.
