Just Ten Years Ago

(Taken from Cleveland Star of Friday, June 27, 1924.)

Carl S. Thompson stated yesterday that he is rebuilding the Thompson Lumber company's plant and hopes to have it in operation within three weeks from date.

The manufacturing plant, it will be remembered, was destroyed by fire started during an electric storm Wednesday evening of last week when the lightning struck and also set fire to Mrs. David Webb's residence on W. Marion street which is also being repaired.

Damages reaching into thousands of dollars was done to the crops in Cleveland Tuesday night when a three hour rain, wind and electric storm visited a section across the center of the county, the cloudburst travelling from above Lattimore across the county toward Cherryville.

The rainfall was the heaviest since the flood of July 1916. The springhouse at Quinn's Lithia spring a few miles north of Shelby was washed away.

A beautiful and impressive ceremony was held at Spindale Rutherford county on the golf links of the Rutherford country club when the members of the Invisible empire Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, that county were presented their charter.

All Cleveland county North Carolina and thousands in other states will be interested in the announcement from Kings Mountain that a celebration will be held at the historic battleground, the turning point of the American fight for freedom.

The directors of the Kings Mountain chamber of commerce at a meeting held last Friday evening decided to celebrate the battle on Tuesday, October 7.

The bobbed hair craze (or it had better be called epidemic) has increased the barber business in Shelby as well as elsewhere.

One barber says his hair cutting is a third better than when he dealt exclusively with men, Shelby girls, and women too, can be seen most any day in a barber chair getting a straight bob or a "shingle bob" and when once they get it, they are regular customers.

Lieutenant L. Maughan, army flier, successfully completed his day light-to-dark flight from New York to San Francisco when he landed at Crissy field at 9:48.

Maughan's landing at 9:48 p. m. made his time for the 2,670 mile airline dash from New York, including five refuelling stops enroute, 21 hours, 48 1-2 minutes, slightly under his original estimate of the time the flight would consume.

Mrs. B. L. Boland of Durham expects to move to Shelby shortly with her little daughter, Gertrude, and make her future home here.

Her husband died on June 19th in Durham. Mrs. Boland is a daughter of Mrs. M. H. Hickson and a sister of Mrs. Russell Laughridge on North Morgan street.

Much interest is manifest in Shelby in the national Democratic convention in session in New York where for three days the 18,000 people packed in the Madison Square garden have been listening to the keynote speech, drawing the platform, hearing the nominating speeches, etc. Balloting will likely start today and the results will be received over several local radio sets.

An electric light line is being erected by prospective farmer customers from the north end of Lafayette street to Double Shoals where electric light service will be furnished the farmers along the line and the cotton gin at Double Shoals.

Celebrating the first birthday of the National Recovery Administration, June 16, NRA officials, headed by General Hugh S. ident Roosevelt's address at Yale university last week was a "political speech."
