

THE MARKETS
Cotton, spot 12 to 13c
Cotton seed, ton, wagon 23.00
Cotton seed, ton, carlots 25.00

Rain Forecast

North Carolina Weather Forecast:
General fair tonight and tomorrow
except local thunder storms Tuesday afternoon.

Gastonia Strike

GASTONIA, July 2.—More than 400 workers of the Dunn and Armstrong textile mills here struck today in sympathy with Clara Manufacturing Co. operatives who have been locked out for eight weeks.

Roosevelt Sails

By UNITED PRESS
ABOARD USS GILMER, July 2.—President Roosevelt headed into the Atlantic today aboard the cruiser Houston on his vacation cruise of 13,000 miles to the West Indies and Hawaii.

Approves Hitler

By UNITED PRESS
BERLIN, July 2.—President Paul von Hindenburg, grand old man of Germany, now believed to be on his death bed, today conferred his blessing on Chancellor Adolf Hitler's house cleaning of revolutionary members of the Nazi party.

The March Of Events

Ford Gives In
Submerged under flash news from Germany and spot news from local primaries was yesterday's Henry Ford story.

Hitler Rules

Adolf Hitler stands forth this morning in undisputed command of all Germany, having put to death leaders in a revolutionary movement against his Nazi rule and terrorized all opposition.

Wages Increased

More than a million railroad workers were happy yesterday to learn that their payrolls had been increased by over $4,000,000 monthly.

President Sails

With Mrs. Roosevelt and his two youngest sons, Franklin, Jr., and John, President Roosevelt yesterday boarded the cruiser Houston and pointed down Chesapeake Bay on a history-making 13,000 mile journey that will carry him to far-flung American possessions in the Atlantic and Pacific.

Rousseau Wins

J. A. Rousseau of Wilkesboro held a lead of 147 votes over J. Hayden Burke of Taylorsville as scattered returns were counted this morning in the run-off for the Democratic nomination for Superior Court judge in the 17th district.

Vast Deficit

A deficit of $3,898,496,035.42 was announced yesterday by the United States Treasury for the first full fiscal year of the Roosevelt Administration.

VOL. XL, No. 79

SHELBY, N. C. MONDAY, JULY 2, 1934

Published Monday, Wednesday and Friday Afternoons.

By Mail, per year, (in advance) — $2.50
Carriage, per year, (in advance) — $3.00

Utters Warning

Dr. Joseph Goebbles, German minister of propaganda, whose voice was heard over the radio here last night warning Germans that "those who conspire against the state" are "playing with their own heads."

H. C. Cox, Former Shelby Resident, Dies In Mars Hill

Chairman of Republican Congressional Committee Succumbs In Mars Hill.
Word was received in Shelby Saturday afternoon of the death of H. Clay Cox, chairman of the Republican congressional committee in the tenth district, a former resident of Shelby, and widely known in Cleveland county.

Hitler Rules

Adolf Hitler stands forth this morning in undisputed command of all Germany, having put to death leaders in a revolutionary movement against his Nazi rule and terrorized all opposition.

Wages Increased

More than a million railroad workers were happy yesterday to learn that their payrolls had been increased by over $4,000,000 monthly.

President Sails

With Mrs. Roosevelt and his two youngest sons, Franklin, Jr., and John, President Roosevelt yesterday boarded the cruiser Houston and pointed down Chesapeake Bay on a history-making 13,000 mile journey that will carry him to far-flung American possessions in the Atlantic and Pacific.

Rousseau Wins

J. A. Rousseau of Wilkesboro held a lead of 147 votes over J. Hayden Burke of Taylorsville as scattered returns were counted this morning in the run-off for the Democratic nomination for Superior Court judge in the 17th district.

Vast Deficit

A deficit of $3,898,496,035.42 was announced yesterday by the United States Treasury for the first full fiscal year of the Roosevelt Administration.

Biggers To Tag Cotton In County; Delay Allotment

12 To 15 Thousand Bales Here

Will Begin Work As Soon As Official Tags Arrive—12 to 15 Thousand Bales In County

M. R. Biggers of Patterson Springs has been appointed by officials at Washington as official cotton tagger in Cleveland county and will begin attaching tags to all old cotton as soon as the tags arrive.

R. W. Shoffner, county agent says he thinks there are from twelve to fifteen thousand bales of old cotton in the county to be tagged under the new law to distinguish old cotton from new.

"Some farmers are confused by column eleven on their notices of acceptance," said Mr. Shoffner this morning. "This column shows the parity payment dues to be made in December and is not the amount of cotton each farmer is allowed to take this year."

Mrs. Ellen Newton Dies Here Today

Widow of J. A. Newton of Casar Passes at Age 73—Bury at Casar Tuesday Afternoon.

Mrs. Ellen Newton, widow of the late J. A. Newton of Casar died this morning at 5:45 o'clock at the home of her son Ausney Newton in East Shelby after an illness of three weeks.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock at the Casar Baptist church where she was a long and faithful member.

Mrs. Newton before marriage was Ellen Canipe. She was a devoted and thrifty mother and greatly beloved by her host of friends.

Three children survive. Ausney Newton, Mrs. Hattie Mullany, Frank Newton.

Furman Cline Held Under Liquor Charge

Forty-five pints of bottled in bond whiskey and 11 half gallons of corn were found Saturday evening by county officers and constable Bob Kendrick hidden under a trap door at the home of Furman Cline in No. 6 township.

Swings His Liquor, Kendrick Gets Him

Bus Hardin was arrested Saturday morning by Constable Bob Kendrick for possession of two pints of liquor. He was held under $50 bond.

Sheriff Cline Has Somebody's Groceries

Sheriff Cline has a batch of somebody's groceries, left in the wrong car Saturday afternoon. Identify them and you can have 'em, he says.

"Wonder Boy" Cooley Challenges Political Imagination Of State

RALEIGH, July 1. — Harold D. Cooley, the "wonder boy," who came up through apparently insurmountable obstacles to win the Fourth district congressional nomination over a field of four, including Geo. Ross Poy, Smithfield and Raleigh, and Jere P. Zollicoffer, Henderson, is now being spoken of, almost in whispers, for a still broader field and post-United States Senator.

Battles Dread Illness

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., July 1.—Marie Dressler, beloved actress of stage and screen, passed a fairly comfortable night, her physicians said this morning. Her temperature remained at 100.4, and her condition was practically unchanged during the past 12 hours, they said.

City About To Lose Grant For New School Buildings

PWA Threatens To Withdraw Funds If Work Is Not Started On Dover, Negro Schools And High School Arcade.

Superintendent of Schools B. L. Smith is today marshaling every available resource in a desperate effort to avoid losing the PWA grant for construction of the negro school and an arcade for the high school building in Shelby.

Thermal City Tests For Gold

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C. July 1.—W. H. Hinn of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and V. T. Edmondson of Madison, Wisconsin, gold miners of many years' experience, are testing the Grove gold mine at Thermal City, Rutherford County, and plan to open it soon.

Last Notices Going Out To Farmers

Final notices are going out to farmers who sign cotton reduction contracts with the government, notifying them of the receipt of their checks and on what day to call. Thursday will be the last day that the office will be open until 9 o'clock at night.

Cleveland B. And L. Pays Out $4,000

Four thousand dollars was paid out to shareholders of the Cleveland Building and Loan Association holding fully paid stock, it was announced this morning by J. L. Suttle, secretary-treasurer.

Pinkney Hamrick Has First Bloom

The first Cleveland county cotton bloom was reported this morning by Pinkney P. Hamrick who, lives two miles north of Lattimore. Mr. Hamrick says he planted farm reepl seed on April 12th.

Ransom McEntire Struck By Auto, Dies In Hospital

Leg Is Broken In Accident

Is Hit By Robert Andrews' Car As He Measures Gasoline To Hold Funeral On Tuesday.

Ransom A. McEntire, a partner in the operation of the Champion Oil Co. of Shelby and member of a prominent Cleveland family, died in the hospital last night, never regaining full consciousness after being struck an hour before in front of his independent filling station on West Warren street by a car operated by Robert Andrews.

Mr. McEntire had just finished filling with gasoline a wrecker operated by Charles Upton when Andrews' car struck him. It was raining at the time of the accident.

He left leg was broken and he suffered great loss of blood, even in the short time it required to rush him to the hospital. There, physicians consulted on the advisability of administering a blood transfusion, but he slipped away so rapidly that this was not done.

Mr. McEntire, who was unmarried, was widely known in this county, where he was born and reared. His home was in the Union community, where he owned two large farms, and where he lived as a boy and young man with his father, Andrew McEntire, who died about a year ago.

Miss Hamrick Dies Near Salem Church

Daughter of Late Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hamrick—Buried at Salem Church Sunday

Miss Lenora Hamrick, age 60, died Saturday morning at the old Hamrick homestead near Salem church on Buffalo, mid-way between Shelby and Kings Mountain on Highway No. 20 and was buried Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Salem church, the funeral being conducted by Rev. J. N. Wise, assisted by Rev. R. L. Forbis.

More Open Cotton Blooms Reported

Alonzo M. Hamrick of the Sharon-Beaver Dam section reported this morning that he found one day old red cotton bloom and two white blooms on the same stalk of cotton this morning in his field.

Summer Silly Season On Again; Feller Has Scheme To Make Rain

The time has come to award the annual prize—a galvanized automatic water sprinkler—for the dullest suggestion received by the federal government at Washington for making water sprinkler, for the drought by causing some artificial rain.

Salvation Army To Hold Meetings Here

Capt. and Mrs. Wynne Plan To Take Old Laundry And Hold Twice-A-Week Services.

Gardners Home For Two Months

Ex-Governor and Mrs. O. Max Gardner will arrive Tuesday from Washington to spend a couple of months here at their home on S. Washington street. They will be in the city for the month of July and the month of August.

Gardner Beats Smith By Majority Of 367; Light Vote Recorded

Re-Nominated

Ernest Gardner of Fallston, who nosed out J. B. Smith in the second primary for the Democratic nomination for the State House of Representatives Saturday.

B. and L. Paying $6,000 Cash And Cancelling Papers

Shelby and Cleveland Matures Its 6th Series, Celebrates 24th Anniversary.

The Shelby and Cleveland County Building and Loan association is mailing out $6,174 in cash and cancelling mortgages on loans to the amount of $8,100, it was announced today by R. T. LeGrand president and John P. Mull, secretary-treasurer.

Shelby B. And L. Paying Dividends

Pays out $7,832 to Shareholders With Full Stock in Association

Checks totalling $7,832.27 were mailed Saturday to shareholders in the Shelby Building and Loan Association who have fully paid stock. This is a semi-annual dividend of two and a half per cent. Full paid stock bears an interest rate of five per cent half of which is payable in July half in January.

City About To Lose Grant For New School Buildings

PWA Threatens To Withdraw Funds If Work Is Not Started On Dover, Negro Schools And High School Arcade.

Thermal City Tests For Gold

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C. July 1.—W. H. Hinn of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and V. T. Edmondson of Madison, Wisconsin, gold miners of many years' experience, are testing the Grove gold mine at Thermal City, Rutherford County, and plan to open it soon.

Miss Hamrick Dies Near Salem Church

Daughter of Late Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hamrick—Buried at Salem Church Sunday

More Open Cotton Blooms Reported

Alonzo M. Hamrick of the Sharon-Beaver Dam section reported this morning that he found one day old red cotton bloom and two white blooms on the same stalk of cotton this morning in his field.

Summer Silly Season On Again; Feller Has Scheme To Make Rain

The time has come to award the annual prize—a galvanized automatic water sprinkler—for the dullest suggestion received by the federal government at Washington for making water sprinkler, for the drought by causing some artificial rain.

Gardner Renominated For Legislature In Second Primary

Shelby Voters Pile Up Lead For Gardner; Smith Wins In Kings Mtn.

Upheld by large majorities in the city of Shelby and in his home town of Fallston, Ernest Gardner, Cleveland county's representative in the lower house of the state legislature, was re-nominated as candidate for the Democratic party in the run-off race against J. B. Smith of Waco as a slim majority trickled in Saturday night.

Gardner received 1,800 votes, Smith, 1,463. Gardner's majority: 367. Total vote cast: 3,333.

Ernest Gardner of Fallston, who nosed out J. B. Smith in the second primary for the Democratic nomination for the State House of Representatives Saturday.

B. and L. Paying $6,000 Cash And Cancelling Papers

Shelby and Cleveland Matures Its 6th Series, Celebrates 24th Anniversary.

The Shelby and Cleveland County Building and Loan association is mailing out $6,174 in cash and cancelling mortgages on loans to the amount of $8,100, it was announced today by R. T. LeGrand president and John P. Mull, secretary-treasurer.

Shelby B. And L. Paying Dividends

Pays out $7,832 to Shareholders With Full Stock in Association

Checks totalling $7,832.27 were mailed Saturday to shareholders in the Shelby Building and Loan Association who have fully paid stock. This is a semi-annual dividend of two and a half per cent. Full paid stock bears an interest rate of five per cent half of which is payable in July half in January.

City About To Lose Grant For New School Buildings

PWA Threatens To Withdraw Funds If Work Is Not Started On Dover, Negro Schools And High School Arcade.

Thermal City Tests For Gold

RUTHERFORDTON, N. C. July 1.—W. H. Hinn of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, and V. T. Edmondson of Madison, Wisconsin, gold miners of many years' experience, are testing the Grove gold mine at Thermal City, Rutherford County, and plan to open it soon.

Miss Hamrick Dies Near Salem Church

Daughter of Late Mr. and Mrs. Miles Hamrick—Buried at Salem Church Sunday

More Open Cotton Blooms Reported

Alonzo M. Hamrick of the Sharon-Beaver Dam section reported this morning that he found one day old red cotton bloom and two white blooms on the same stalk of cotton this morning in his field.

Summer Silly Season On Again; Feller Has Scheme To Make Rain

The time has come to award the annual prize—a galvanized automatic water sprinkler—for the dullest suggestion received by the federal government at Washington for making water sprinkler, for the drought by causing some artificial rain.

(Continued on page eight.)