Hamrick Goes Route For The Locals; Short Stars

Both Teams Obtain Total of 29 Hits In Free-For-All W. Carolina Game.

Shelby and Newton lambasted each other for nearly two hours at Newton yesterday afternoon, the two teams getting a total of 29 hits in a Western Carolina league conflict. Newton combined their sixteen safe blows most efficiently to roll up nine runs to Shelby's four, thereby giving the local aggregation its first league set-back in five starts.

The loss gives Shelby a percentage of .571 in the league standings, having won four and lost three.

Newton collected in all 16 safeties of Sherrill Hamrick. Shelby managed 18 off Hampton, Phillips and Gillespie.

Short Leading Slugger

Short, Shelby rightfielder, snapped out of a recent slump to lead both teams in slugging, getting four hits out of five attempts, a triple, a double, and two singles. Dale, infield second baseman, also got four for five, but all were singles.

Phillips and Yount connected with circuit blows for Newton in the seventh, while Walton, Kitchen, Shelby left-fielder hit one in the sixth rack.

Shelby has four more games this week, taking on Hickory in the Observer tournament at Hickory tonight, Newton in a return league game here Thursday afternoon, Hickory again Friday night on the Rebel field, and Marion here Saturday afternoon in a W. Carolina conflict.

Red Sox To Play Tigers Thursday

The Shelby Mill Red Sox, a purely amateur group of players, will take on the strong Blackburg Tigers in a game to be played at the Shelby mill park Thursday afternoon.

The local team played a number of successful games the first part of the season, but Thursday's game will mark the first time they have made an appearance in several weeks.

The reason given for the inactivity was the fact that several of the players had been at camp.

Company K. Back From Coast Camp; Win Many Laurels

Shelby National Guard Group Wins Laurels In Sporting Events.

Shelby's Company K returned from its annual summer encampment at Camp Glenn near Morehead City Sunday, bringing along numerous camp sports titles.

The local group carried off more laurels than any company in the third battalion and ended what Capt. Peyton McSwain described as the company's most successful encampment in several years.

Besides the unusual record which they made with the service rifle, the K boys showed their ability in handling the automatic also. Out of 12 men allowed to fire it, nine were able to qualify as Marksmen, and one gained Sharpshooter's rating.

The locals carried off two first in boxing this year. Willie Williams made it two straight in the featherweight and Bynum Cook copped the welterweight division. Bob Jyder lost out in the finals on a much debated decision to Adair of Gastonia.

The baseball team, champions last year, went undefeated in three games, only to lose the championship by the toss of a coin. The championship game was supposed to have been played in the Morehead City park, but officials were unable to secure the park and decided to toss a coin for the title. Company A of Burlington won.

Dover-Ora Spanks Shelby Mill Team

Dover-Ora and Shelby mill, two Twin-State league teams, clashed yesterday afternoon at the Lily Mill park in a non-league conflict, and the recently rejuvenated Dover-Ora outfit came off with a five to four victory over their old rivals.

The game was a pitchers battle the entire route, with Duncan giving up nine hits, and Davis surrendering ten. Silvers and Farris served behind the plates.

Byers got the only home run of the day, that over the centerfield fence in the fourth inning, bringing in two men in front of him.

For the Shelby mill, Smith, Williams, Silvers and Barrett got two hits each. Wolfman and Byers connected with two each for Dover-Ora.

Dover-Ora plays the Kings Mountain Goodfellows at the Dover-Ora park at four o'clock this afternoon in another non-loop game.

Asks Registration Of Wets In S. C.

ELLENTON, S. C., July 24.—Romulus Reese, executive secretary of the anti-prohibition forces in the state today had issued a last-minute call to wets to register for the August 26 referendum.
A possible repetition of last November's dry victory was predicted by the wet chief unless the anti-prohibition forces turn-out and register for the Democratic primary in large numbers.

"Failure to register, in the final analysis, cost us the election last November," Reese said. "The same thing exists now as in the last campaign: the dregs are registered, and it is a safe bet that 50 per cent of our strength is not on the books."

The figures show that there were more than three times as many births as deaths in the county during the above period, the ratio being 4,118 to 336, giving the birth column 780 more tallies than the death side of the ledger.

Young Democrats Put 'Em On Spot

he one of the chief speakers and also the impetuous and effervescent junior senator. Governor Ehringhaus was added to the list, and then casting about for others, the name of Hoy and Doughton were added.

Oh, Could They Be Jealous?

As a result, it is a pretty good guess that over the State any number of other would-be governors are saying considerably more about the pesky Young Democrats than Senator Bailey did about the Tugwell invitation. Why? Well, some eight or 10 party faithfuls are eyeing the 1936 gubernatorial opening with just as much relish as the Brushy Mountain cattle-raiser and the Shelby lawyer. It has been said, in print and elsewhere, time and again, that none of the others has a chance of getting to first base against either Doughton or Hoy. Just which of the two has the best prospect of licking the other is a matter of conjecture, but it is known, or so rumored, that "Farmer Bob" has resented the implication that the Shelby man cannot be licked, if he really makes a bid for the office.

Since they are both already "on the spot," it is only natural that the entire State will be interested in what they will have to say.

They're Powerful Tactical

What will that be? More than likely, nothing sensational or dangerous. Both are too tactful, too wary and experienced to get themselves in a hole two years in advance. Doughton, now chairman of the potent Ways and Means Committee, has been representing his district in Washington for more than a score of years. Hoy has been active in politics for over three decades. Both know the ins and outs and all the tricks and strategies of the political game. Chances are both will try to say a lot without saying anything definite. Anyway, it will be embarrassing to the other gubernatorial hopefuls who may consider themselves slighted, but the Young Democrats, an impetuous lot, care little about that. They have injected new life in the Democratic party in North Carolina and they are not adverse to letting the old-line leaders know that they can put more votes in the ballot-boxes than can the veterans.

The selection of the two outstanding candidates of 1936 may have been an accident, but, on the other hand, it may have been a carefully considered selection. Be that as it may, the two men will be "on the spot" after Saturday night, and until one of the two is "rubbed out" in the primary battle of June 1936. For that reason, more enthusiasm has developed about the week-end convention in Asheville than would have under the ordinary course. Those present will listen intently to the other two senators, the governor, et al—but they will not make a word spoken by Hoy and Doughton. In fact, the toastmaster, if he's so minded, might put over a master stroke by staging a double introduction, have the two stand together and say: "Young Democrats of North Carolina, permit me to introduce your next Governor."

Such an introduction might not read so well with Charlotte's Colonel Kipling, the likable "Sandy" Graham, perhaps the nearby Judge Wilson Warlick, and others, but the Young Democrats are a fact-of-the-fact-and-get-it-over with group imbued with all the daring of youth and that's just what they may do.

Frankly, if you were a betting man (and even those who do not bet will admit that they have the urge at times), would it not be a safe bet to wager that the next North Carolina governor is as certain to speak at Asheville Saturday as is the present Governor? And Governor Ehringhaus is assuredly on the program.
