Thunder Showers

Weather forecast for North Carolina—Local thunder showers tonight and Tuesday.

To Try Nazis

By UNITED PRESS
VIENNA, July 30.—A Military court, armed with power of life and death, to Nazi rebels will be convened this afternoon. It is expected that no appeal will be made from the court's sentence unless, in some instances, the president grants a pardon. Otto Panetta today confessed that he murdered Chancellor Dollfus. He said he did it for personal revenge because of his dismissal from the army.

Gangster's Family

INDIANAPOLIS, July 30.—Scenes in Chicago's basement morgue, when thousands rioted last week for a glimpse of John Dillinger's bullet-ridden body, were paralleled today when more thousands stormed an Indianapolis theatre exhibition of Dillinger's family. His seventy-year old father, sister, brother-in-law and halfbrothers were on exhibition. They expected to receive enough money to pay for John's funeral.

Coast Strike Ends

By UNITED PRESS
SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—The Pacific coast longshoremen's strike was called off today, the men promising to return to work tomorrow after a walkout that lasted 82 days.

Rome Fears Leak

By UNITED PRESS
ROME, July 30.—From official sources it was learned today that the Italian government fears that Dr. Anton Eintein, former Austrian Minister, communicated to the Nazis all the secret information regarding conferences and diplomatic exchanges between Chancellor Dollfus of Austria and Premier Mussolini of Italy.

The March Of Events

Name New Cabinet
A new Austrian cabinet was appointed last night with Dr. Kurt Schuschnigg, an ardent anti-Nazi, succeeding Engelbert Dollfus as chancellor. Prince Ernst Rüdiger von Starhemberg, acting chancellor after the assassination of Dollfus, was named vice-chancellor.

High Flyers Down

At 60,000 feet, something happened to the great upper-air balloon, "Explorer," in which two army officers were trying to probe the atmosphere of the stratosphere. It began to sink. At 6,000 feet the pilots bailed out, landing safely in their parachutes. Today, experts are trying to learn what made the giant gas bag crack up. The great balloon was the largest ever built, containing about three acres of fabric.

See Business Good

Summer off-season trade will likely be bolstered by price control clauses of the NRA code, it is believed in Washington. Recovery Administration officials said that many destructive price wars had been averted through provisions which forbid sale of goods below manufacturing cost.

"Ma's" Man Beaten

Charles C. McDonald, choice of Gov. Miram ("Ma") Ferguson to succeed her as Governor of Texas, was counted out of the race last night. James V. Allred, 35-year-old attorney general and Tom F. Hunter, attorney, held a wide lead over "Ma's" choice.

Plan Labor Ruling

The new National Labor Relations Board was reported yesterday to be planning announcement of a decision on the labor majority rule question. Disputes as to whether labor organizations representing a majority of the workers in a plant should speak for all the workers have plagued the administration since congress guaranteed the right to bargain collectively.

Seeks Divorce Today

Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall, daughter of the President, will file suit in Reno today for a divorce from Curtis B. Dall, New York broker. "Incompatible relations" were given by her attorney as the basis of the suit. Mutual property right, and custody of the children have been adjusted by agreement, he said.

Character Reader Will Give Series Of Lectures Here

Edward Lee Hawk To Give Free Program

Star and Chamber of Commerce Sponsor Cause in Better Human Understanding.

Edward Lee Hawk, internationally known human analyst, vocational advisor and salesmanship coach will give a series of eight lectures on "How to Understand and Deal With People" at the courthouse beginning Tuesday night, August 2 at eight o'clock and continuing each night through August 9. A special lecture for parents and young people, dealing with vocational advice, will be given Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The series of lectures is sponsored by The Cleveland Star and the Shelby chamber of commerce and Merchants association. There will be no charge of any sort for the lectures, which are being given to the community by the sponsors named as a public enterprise.

"Perhaps there was never a time when it was so necessary for us to understand human nature — our own mental and emotional makeup and the mental and emotional nature and behavior traits of others, as at the present," says Mr. Hawk. "And it is an easy matter to understand ourselves because our natures are indicated by the physical features, size and shape of the body, eyes, nose, mouth, color of the complexion, fine or coarse hair and by the way we walk. These facts have been proved by science and are taken into account by all personnel workers."

Wrong Mental Attitude. "The undesirable conditions in the business world and the more serious problems of our social life today are largely if not wholly due to a perverted mental attitude on the part of the people as a whole. If we wish to bring conditions back to a sane and normal status we must learn to control our emotions and direct our thoughts along straight and constructive lines. We must appreciate that their needs, their needs, their joys and sorrows — constitute the basis for all business and social enterprise."

"We need a broader and deeper understanding of human nature. We need to be able to recognize and appreciate the likes and dislikes and the natural inclinations of different individuals, and to understand the basic laws that cause individual behavior."

"It lies only through a knowledge of this kind that we can successfully adapt ourselves to our fellow-men and win the respect, confidence and co-operation of those with whom we must associate in business, social or domestic relationships."

"In point of importance knowledge of human nature and how to deal with people stands above all other knowledge, because no difference where we are, what we are or what we do, we have to associate with, live with and transact business with other human beings. In fact every act of our life is with, for or in some way affects another person or persons."

Lecture Subjects. Some of the subjects Mr. Hawk will talk about are: The story your mirror tells; This and that folks and how to deal with them; Blondes brunettes and red heads; Making your personality pay.

It is expected that citizens, employers, employees—manufacturers and merchants will attend the Hawk talks, because of his position in this line of work in the nation.

Messrs. Dick LeGrand, Pedro McKnight and James Eskridge were visitors at Lake Montona Sunday afternoon.

Psychologist

Edward Lee Hawk, internationally known human analyst, vocational advisor, who will give a series of three lectures here.

Services Held For Charles M. Carson, Retired RFD Man

Retired From Service In July of Last Year; Services at Funeral Home.

Funeral Services were conducted at one o'clock this afternoon for Charles M. Carson, aged 62, retired mail carrier, who died Saturday night at the home of his brother-in-law, George DePriest on Marietta Street.

Mr. Carson was apparently in good health Saturday, but was stricken with a sudden attack about three o'clock in the afternoon, and died at midnight. His death was attributed to angina pectoris.

Mr. Carson was never married, and is survived by two brothers and one sister: Mrs. George DePriest, Zeb Carson of Charlotte, and J. L. Carson of San Antonio, Texas.

A short service was conducted by the Rev. E. K. McLarty at the Palmer Funeral home this afternoon, after which the body was taken to Salem churchyard in Rutherford county for burial. Pallbearers were taken from the force of the local postoffice.

Mr. Carson was a native of Rutherford county, as were his father and mother. He had been living in this county about 37 years, 30 of which were spent in the mail service.

Two Cleveland Boys Licensed As Doctors

Dr. William McBrayer Elliott of Waco Ranks Second on Examination Paper.

Two Cleveland county medical students received their license to practice from the state board of examiners last week; Dr. William McBrayer Elliott of Waco and Dr. Fletcher Dover Sain of Lenoir.

Dr. Elliott stood second on his examination grade making slightly under 90. Dr. Sterling Archer Barrett of Fayetteville had the highest average. Seventy four medical students were licensed by the board of examiners and in the lot were three women. Dr. Sain of upper Cleveland has been studying medicine at Temple University, in Philadelphia. It is understood that both doctors are doing intern work before setting out to practice.

Hoey Gets Ovation At Democratic Meet

Clyde R. Hoey, much talked-of candidate for Governor in the next state election, received a great ovation at the meeting of the Young Democrats at Asheville Saturday. About 600 delegates attended the Saturday night banquet when Mr. Hoey, along with others, spoke. His presence and speech brought forth great applause and hundreds gathered around him at the close of the banquet to pledge their support in the event he sees fit to run.

To Distribute New Telephone Directory

The new telephone directory for Shelby, secured through the efforts of the Shelby chamber of commerce and Merchants association, will reach Shelby today or Tuesday, and will be distributed sometime during the week, it was learned here this morning.

Postpone Sentell Murder Trial For The Second Time

Case Will Be Called In October Term

Minor Jail Cases Still Crowd Docket; Indicated Civil Term Will Not Be Reached.

On the plea of Attorney A. G. Brees of Brevard, the Sentell murder trial has been postponed until the October term of Superior court. Mr. Brees, defense counsel, appeared before Judge Harding here late Friday afternoon. He said he had a heavy civil docket to try in his home county, and urged that it was too hot now to undertake a murder trial that might prove to be long. Judge Harding agreed, declaring that he had opened court every Monday morning this year, and that it was indeed the wrong sort of weather for such a trial.

Postponed Once Before Louis Sentell, Byrum Hoistery Mill worker, charged with the murder of Mrs. William Drake, known here as Florence Jones, will remain in jail, therefore, for three months. His case was postponed three months ago upon Mr. Brees's plea that his (Mr. Brees's) wife was ill at that time.

None of the capital cases on this docket has been tried so far. It was indicated this morning that the civil docket would not be reached this week either. A multitude of "jail" cases remains to be tried.

A great crowd jammed the court house this morning, attracted by the announcement that the Sentell case, which was slated for today, would be opened.

Annual Home Coming At Old Capernium

Dr. Bowers of Gastonia Will Preach On Saturday, August Fourth.

The annual home coming, that is looked forward to every year, will be held at Old Capernium near Waco, Saturday August 4th. The occasion promises to be very entertaining and interesting. Special music has been arranged for by different quartets. The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. Bowers of the First Baptist Church of Gastonia.

The program will begin at ten o'clock with singing. Sermon at eleven o'clock, after which dinner will be served on the ground. In the afternoon, there will be several short talks by former residents of Waco. All relatives and friends are invited to come.

Mr. McDiarmid Ends Revival At Grover

Rev. H. N. McDiarmid, pastor of the Shelby Presbyterian church closed a revival meeting yesterday at Shiloh Presbyterian church, Grover. The Grover pastor, Dr. J. T. Dendy supplied the pulpit here at the Shelby Presbyterian church Sunday. The attendance was good and the interest keen in the Grover meeting conducted by Mr. McDiarmid. Mr. McDiarmid goes on his vacation the last of this week to his old home at Raeford.

Hail Plays Havoc In Wall Section

A hail storm played havoc in the Wall section of Rutherford county several miles north of Ellensboro Friday and practically destroyed crops in an area several miles wide, according to A. B. Bushong, agricultural teacher in the Ellensboro high school. The section lies around Cherry Mountain just over the line in Rutherford county from Cleveland. Mr. Bushong says reports are that the hail was very destructive to crops of all kinds.

Shelby Nurse Is Passed By Board

Miss Julie L. Jones, who graduated from the nurses school at the Shelby hospital this year, was Saturday admitted to practice as a nurse after she passed the state examination given in Mt. Airy.

Civil Court Term To Be Postponed

The civil term of Superior court here, slated to start today, has been indefinitely postponed. With an overcrowded criminal docket, and the Sentell trial due to begin this morning, the civil cases may be reached by Wednesday, or may not be reached at all.

Il Duce Masses His Troops

The map in the above layout locates the various points in Austria where Nazi forces and government troops waged fierce battles in a civil warfare, which gave indications of spreading, as an aftermath of the assassination of Chancellor Engelbert Dollfus in a Nazi putsch to gain control of the government. While the nation rumbled in turmoil, Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy moved 48,000 troops, full equipped for war-time service, on the Austrian frontier.

Alvin Probst is in charge of Bankhead allotments here, and is equipped to reveal the many mysteries of contracts and red tapes that always surround anything a government undertakes. The county agents office is busy today with the stack-to-rattle of many type-alls, a staff of 10 is required, in addition to assistant, County Agent Stuart, to keep track of the county's cotton reducing.

Lightning Does Damage During Thunderstorm In Bostic Section

RUTHERFORDTON, July 28.—The barn of Con. H. Bostic, located about two miles north of the town of Bostic, was struck and destroyed by lightning yesterday afternoon during a heavy electrical storm. Four mules were burned to death when they refused to come out of the flaming building. Some feedstuffs and farming tools of Bostic were also burned. The loss was several thousand dollars with no insurance.

Bike Burns Air On Way To Fair

He flies through the air on his speeding bicycle. To see the world's fair without costing a nickel. Ye-ow—he flies through the air with the greatest of ease. My gracious, that man has got iron-hinged knees. That's a theme-song for Craig Hartgrove of Shelby, who started out on Monday to see the world's fair through the handlebars of a bicycle. Reports of his progress come daily to The Star from points en route. From the Mayor of La-Follette, Tenn., comes a postcard dated July 26, reporting that Hartgrove passed through that city at 7 p. m. "going good."

Revival Meeting On At Boiling Springs

A revival meeting began yesterday at Boiling Springs Baptist church of which Rev. J. L. Jenkins is pastor. Rev. Bruce Benton of Rockingham is preaching twice daily at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. J. L. Lovelace of Boiling Springs is in charge of the music. The start has been very encouraging and the meeting promises to be fruitful.

County Farmers Feeling No Pinch Of Regimentation

In Fact They Seem To Like Crop Control

Tags Arrive For Marking Bales Except From Bankhead Tax.

With the arrival here late Saturday afternoon of 12,314 bale tags to mark cotton which is exempt from provisions of the Bankhead act, Cleveland starts full swing into the last lap of the bitterly-contested program of cotton reduction and cotton limitation.

Seventy county committeemen at the same time reported on their activities throughout the county measuring lands as a check-up under the reduction program. They were enthusiastic and said that they had received cheerful co-operation. Senators may call it regimentation, but so far, Cleveland farmers haven't felt oppressed by it. Matter of fact, they're still feeling joyful over the payments they've received for not growing so much cotton.

M. R. Biggers will have charge of distributing the bale tags and will begin immediately. He asks that farmers who have cotton to tag get this cotton in shape—that is, pile it up where it can be reached when he comes around.

R. W. Shoffner, county agent, under whose direction all this tagging and measuring comes, said this morning that 275 farms had been measured by his committeemen so far, leaving about 2,750 to go. He praised highly the co-operation of the committeemen, all of whom have attended every meeting called.
