

LATE WORLD NEWS TOLD IN PICTURES

WRIGLEY KIN—A granddaughter of the late William Wrigley, Jr., Mrs. Dennis B. Sullivan, and her Chicago husband pay a honeymoon visit to Mrs. William Wrigley, Jr., at Catalina Island, Cal., owned by the Wrigleys. The bride of two months, who was the former Betty Offield, and her husband are shown alighting from an amphibian plane at Catalina airport.

TESTING CONEY'S PURITY—Because of the controversy over the purity of the ocean, at Coney Island, N. Y., where millions of persons bathe each summer, these three bathers are shown equipped with gas masks, preparatory to making sub-surface tests. They pronounced the water fit for swimming.

VIENNA HONORS DOLLFUSS—As the body of Engelbert Dollfuss, slain chancellor, was drawn through the streets of Vienna, to its final resting place, citizens knelt in prayer along the route for the soul of the man who is looked upon by many of his countrymen as a martyr.

WHAT AM I BIDDING?—So popular have old-time horse auctions become in Wisconsin that they are being held in all parts of the state. Above, bidders gathered near Madison.

AND IT RUNS!—Believe it or not this horseless carriage has just transported its two occupants, Paul Dilley, left, and Eugene Rude, from their homes, in Blaisdell, N. D., to the Century of Progress, at Chicago. It was built in 1908.

RIDE 'EM, COWGIRL—A real cowgirl and horsewoman, Miss Margaret Poole of Preston, Idaho, has been chosen to preside over the annual rodeo exhibit at Soda Springs, Idaho.

VISITORS—Beautiful Margot Grahame, English actress, accompanied by her husband, Francis Lister, arrives in New York for a visit.

CHEER FOR CHICAGO TEACHERS—Chicago school teachers are elated over the arrival of Jesse Jones, chairman of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, to begin work of approving security for the $26,000,000 loan which the RFC has agreed to make available for meeting back teaching salaries. Shown with him, in Chicago, are Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, widow of the wartime president, right.

ANOTHER ROOSEVELTIAN PLAYGROUND—Sistie and Buzzie Dall, the White House grandchildren, are vacationing with their father, Curtis Dall, on secluded Wilmot island, in Plum lake, northern Wisconsin. The children were taken to the island by their father shortly after Mrs. Dall secured a divorce.

WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD—Even more precious than gold, these dry days, is a cool drink of pure water, in the drouth areas. Many stricken towns in Kansas and Missouri are receiving the much sought after liquid by tank cars from Kansas City, Mo., without cost. Photo shows tank cars being filled at the municipal water plants for shipment to small waterless cities.

NOW COMES BALLROOM STREAMLINING!—To be fashionable these days you must even streamline your dancing! Audrey Denniston of Ithaca, N. Y., and Leo Kehl of Madison, Wis., demonstrate the new streamline fox trot to dancing masters in convention in New York.

ALL FOR A DANCE—Just to see the hula danced in its native Hawaiian haunts, Miss Elizabeth Marcy, Washington, D. C., dancer, is willing to travel 3,100 miles across the continent and 2,400 miles on the Pacific, a round trip of 11,000 miles. Above, she is embarking from Los Angeles.