Gaffney Watchman Is Shot To Death

George McCraw Is Dead And Three Are Held For Investigation.

GAFFNEY, S. C., Sept. 15.—George McCraw, night watchman at the Limestone and Hamricks mills, was shot and killed early today by Dock J. Parris, operator of a dance hall. Parris went to the county jail and surrendered immediately after the shooting. Arthur Higgins and Fred Curtis, who officers were informed, were with Parris, were held as material witnesses. The dance hall proprietor did not make a statement, but officers said their information was that a remark McCraw was alleged to have made about Parris several days ago led to the slaying. An inquest was delayed pending word from Solicitor Sam R. Wall of Spartanburg, who was in Columbia today. Parris is a brother of J. D. Parris, Democratic nominee for state senator from Cherokee county.

Mills Of Rutherford Get Excellent Rating

FOREST CITY, Sept. 17.—The Florence Cotton mill at Forest City, the Alexander Manufacturing company, about one-half mile from here and the Sterling Hosiery mill of Spindale are on the honor roll of the North Carolina department of labor for September with an "A" grade.

Recently the department of labor adopted a grading system in which all manufacturing plants are graded in class A, B, C, or D. Grade A means that the establishment has scored 95 per cent or better. Correct this sentence: If a man doesn't haggle over the price," said the dealer, "I never charge him more than others."

A federal official has figured out that every child born in the U. S. is saddled with a public debt of $300. No wonder babies cry.

100 Warrants Out For Strike Leaders

Cleveland Flying Squadrons Named In Cliffside And Spindale Mill Disturbances.

FOREST CITY, Sept. 15.—Approximately one hundred warrants are being sworn out by Rutherford county officials, textile workers and individuals at Spindale for arrest of leaders and others participating in the Flying Squadron riots which occurred at Spindale Tuesday, Sept. 3rd. The majority of these warrants charge the accused with trespass and rioting. It is understood that they will be served sometime this week. Nearly all of the warrants are for Shelby strikers and Cleveland county residents. A similar number of warrants are also being sworn out by officers, mill workers and others against strike leaders participating in the disorders at Cliffside Mills, Sept. 4, when that mill was closed by a visiting squadron from Cleveland county. Strike leaders said here today that they knew of no warrants having been served, and that, in a meeting last week, no arrests were reported.

FERA Jobholders Barred From Relief

RALEIGH, Sept. 16.—Relief workers who turn down jobs offered them because they can secure a larger wage under the FERA will not be given further relief work. Mrs. Thomas O'Berry, state director, announced. If the pay for the job they take is not as much as the FERA pay, then the difference will be made up by the relief organization, but those who turn down jobs that do not pay as much as the FERA will be dropped from relief rolls. Mrs. O'Berry assures. These workers are supposed to supply local agricultural or other labor needed, she said. Keeping your nose to the grindstone is a poor way to sharpen your wits.

McMullen Presides In Surety Cases

RALEIGH, Sept. 16.—Harry McMullen, named last week as chairman of the N. C. Industrial commission, succeeding Major Matt H. Allen, resigned, is presiding this week over his first hearings workmen's compensation cases Raleigh.
