by members of Mrs. Connor's room with the entire school singing the morning prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read by C. M. Peeler, Red Cross secretary of the school. Three girls from the sixth grade told about some interesting work that had been done by juniors in other schools.

The subject for the meeting was "Giving." A report from each grade was given telling of plans for Red Cross work for Christmas. The first grade plans to send toys to the nursery school in South Shelby; Mrs. Connor's room will give milk and fruit to a cripple; the second grade will send a basket of fruit and candy to an eighteen year old boy who is a shut-in; the third grade will send crayons and pictures to the children at South Mountain Institute; the fourth grade will give a fruit shower to their teacher who is in the hospital; the fifth grade plans to send a handkerchief shower to a sick friend; the sixth grade is to send fruit and canned goods to needy family and the seventh grade will make candy dolls for the children in the Orthopaedic hospital in Gastonia.

Lunch was served buffet style. The lovely red carnations which were used for the centerpiece on the table added a very cheerful note to the occasion.

We appreciate Mrs. Morrison's gracious hospitality. Our January club meeting will be on this same subject and will be conducted by the agent, assisted by these leaders.

Miss Estabrook, a native of New York, is our state home beautification specialist and is considered a very excellent authority on this subject.

Christmas Bazaar Plans had been started for a Christmas Bazaar but Mrs. Boyd Warlick, our county treasurer, thinks it best to make other plans for raising money so we will have no bazaar at this time.

Warlick-Belwood Club The ladies of the Warlick-Belwood home demonstration club entertained their husbands last Friday night with a chicken stew.

Games and songs were enjoyed before and after the delicious chicken stew.

Harvest Dinner
The home demonstration club members in No. 3 township enjoyed a delicious harvest dinner last Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Lawton Blanton in Earl. The food was delicious and was attractively served. Each member furnished her part of the food.

Christmas gift suggestions were given by the members and the agent. I am sure each lady who attended the dinner went home in a much happier frame of mind and more eager to do her part toward home and community.

School A Success
Thirty-one club members attended the leader school taught by Miss Helen N. Estabrook last Friday. Mrs. C. A. Morrison, of South Shelby, was hostess to the group. Two short sessions were held. Before lunch Miss Estabrook discussed floors, old and new, and gave specific illustrations. After lunch each leader was given samples of new pine flooring and old pine flooring which she successfully treated.
