Son Tells Lie Mother Dies About Killing

LEAKSVILLE, July 22.—Mrs. Charles Harris, about 50, a resident of the Ayersville section of Rockingham county is dead as the result of a shooting told her by her 17-year-old son—and the story was branded false by Sheriff L. M. Sheffield. According to the officer, young Harris told his mother, who was suffering from heart trouble, that he had shot Jake Johnson, outlawed negro, wanted for criminal assault on a Miss Grogan in this county several months ago. Mrs. Harris dropped dead when the youth told her of the alleged occurrence. Sheriff Sheffield and his deputies, who checked on the tale of the shooting, said there was "nothing to it." The youth said he shot the negro while hunting near Sandy Ridge yesterday afternoon, but the officer claimed they could find no trace of the body nor any signs that anyone had been at the scene of the reported killing.

How Cardui Helps Women To Build Up Cardui stimulates the appetite and improves digestion, helping women to get more strength from the food they eat. As nourishment is improved, strength is built up, certain functional pains go away and women praise Cardui for helping them back to good health. Mrs. C. E. Ratliff, of Hinton, W. Va., writes: "After the birth of my last baby, I did not seem to get my strength back. I took Cardui again and was soon sound and well. I have given it to my daughters and recommend it to other ladies." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

FIFTEEN FAMOUS HYMNS

By J. Marvin Nichols Asleep in Jesus' blessed sleep, From which none ever wakes to weep! A calm and undisturbed repose, Unbroken by the last of foes.

This hymn, which is one of the most popular of all our funeral hymns, was suggested to the author by the inscription she saw on a tombstone in the burying ground of Pennyross Chapel, in Devonshire, England. It first appeared in 1832 in the "Amethyst," an annual published in Edinburgh, Scotland. Margaret Mackay, the author, was the daughter of Captain Robert Mackay of Hedgefield, near Inverness, Scotland. She was born in 1801, and was married in 1820 to Lieutenant-Colonel William Mackay of the Sixty-Eighth Light Infantry. She was the author of two or three volumes, her "Family at Heatherdale" being perhaps the most popular.

Improving No. 18 Into Morganton For Eight Miles

Eight mile section from State Hospital south toward Shelby, will get new treatment. Work is progressing rapidly on the eight-mile link of Highway No. 18 south of Morganton to permit the early laying of a new hard surface treatment, R. V. Michaux said yesterday. The old hard surface has been removed and the dirt road bed is now being put in condition for the tar and gravel application to improve the route. The work is being conducted by State Highway forces and was not let on contract. No date for completion of the project can be foreseen, inasmuch as weather conditions will largely govern the future process, the highway official stated. Beginning at the southern limits of Morganton at State Hospital, the route will be greatly improved by the work now underway. A smoother and safer riding surface will be provided, inasmuch as the center of the road formerly appeared to motorists to form a high ridge. This rise in the center of the highway is being removed, and the route otherwise improved.
