Prominent Couple Wed In Kings Mtn.

(Special to The Star.)
KINGS MOUNTAIN, Aug. 2.—The Saint Matthews Lutheran church was the scene of a lovely wedding Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Julia Catherine Mauney of this city became the bride of Bahnon N. Barnes of Lumberton and Kings Mountain, uniting two of North Carolina's most prominent families. Rev. John D. Mauney of Hickory, uncle of the bride, officiated, using the impressive Lutheran ring ceremony.
The pre-nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. Aubrey Mauney, organist, sister-in-law of the bride. She was gowned in green chiffon with a corsage of yellow roses, and played "Angelus" by Massenet. "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" by Victor Herbert and "Cantilene Nuptiale" by Dubois. Mrs. J. E. Herndon, soloist, wearing a dress of blue mousseline de soie sang "Because" and "I Love Thee" by Grieg. Wagner's "Wedding Chorus" from Lohengrin was rendered as processional.

The ushers were Claude Hanbright and W. J. Fulkerson. The groomsmen were John McGill and Dr. Jacob Mauney of Raleigh, brother of the bride. Serving as bridesmaids were Miss Fannie Carpenter of Kings Mountain, and Miss Paulella Adair of Spartanburg, S. C., each wearing white chiffon and carrying a spray of peach gladioli. Miss Frances Mauney, sister of the bride and maid-of-honor, wore a lovely dress of tea rose chiffon, accented pleated cape and skirt. She carried a bouquet of briarcliff roses.

The bride, who was unusually lovely, entered on the arm of her father, Mr. S. A. Mauney. She was gowned in a French mode of champagne lace over Duchesne satin, a creation by Lucille Perry with a veil net, coronet effect, veiled with orange blossoms, the soft draped décolletage caught with pearl ornaments. She carried an arm bouquet of brides roses, showered with bits of the veil.

They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. F. M. Biggerstaff.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Aubrey Mauney played softly "Träumerei" by Schumann, "O Perfect Love" was sung as benediction, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as a recessional.

The mother of the bride, Mrs. S. A. Mauney, was dressed in pink handkerchief lace, and wore a corsage of swainsona. Mrs. L. B. Barnes of Lumberton, mother of the groom, wore turquoise blue chiffon and lace combination, her flowers being gardenias and sweetpeas.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mauney, on Gaston street.

The stately residence was decorated throughout with a profusion of flowers, gladioli predominating.
Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Mauney, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mauney and A. E. Mauney greeted the guests at the porch. Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Mauney introduced them to the receiving line, which included Mr. and Mrs. Mauney, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes of Lumberton, Rev. John Mauney of Hickory, the bride and bridegroom, Miss Carpenter, Miss Adair, Miss Mauney, M. Biggerstaff, Dr. Mauney, John McGill, Claude Hanbright, W. J. Fulkerson and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Herndon. In the hall was Mrs. C. E. Neisler, while Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Wolf of Charlotte welcomed the guests at the living room door and directed them to the bride's register, presided over by Miss Margaret Neisler and Mrs. F. M. Biggerstaff. The bride's table was laid with an Irish lace cloth with tall tapers in brass candleabra, Mrs. E. C. Cooper and Mrs. Arthur Grouse presided over the punch bowl. Serving were Misses Grace Heisler, Helen Hay, Martha Lou Mauney, Helen Ridenhour, Mary Louise Little of Conover.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ridenhour were at the last door directing the guests to the spacious lawn where Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Derrick, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hay told the guests goodby.

Mrs. Barnes second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Mauney, is a young woman of rare charm and intellectual attainment. She is a graduate of Kings Mountain high school and Newberry college Newberry S. C. Since her graduation, she has taught in Kings Mountain city schools. For traveling she donned a suit of triple sheer crepe with matching accessories.

Mr. Barnes, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Barnes of Lumberton, is a graduate of Wake Forest and received his M. A. degree from University of North Carolina. He is superintendent of Kings Mountain city schools.

After a short honeymoon they will be at home on Gaston street, Kings Mountain.
