

The Day's News in Pictures

Fashions of the Fashionable

EAST INDIAN—Loretta Young wears a sari-type evening gown, adapted from the conventional garb of the East Indian woman. It is jade green crepe, edged with gold braid.

ZENGE WEARY FROM QUESTIONING—Manville Zenge, right, held in Chicago for the mutilation murder of Dr. Walter J. Bauer, Cleveland osteopath, seems weary as he appears in court, following long hours of questioning. With him is his lawyer, Joseph Green.

Exclusive Photos of Ethiopia

Troops guard the train of Emperor Haile Selassie as he goes from the capital at Addis Ababa to review his troops in the field.

Reveille in Ethiopia is called by a bugler using a primitive goat's horn.

One of the few automobiles in Ethiopia is that of the royal family. The Empress Weuscro Mennan is snapped entering it at the royal palace.

PLANT 40 ACRES IN EIGHT MINUTES—Use of an airplane speeds up the work of rice planting in the Sacramento valley, near Sacramento, Cal., where 40 acres were planted recently in eight minutes. Another advantage of planting is that the method makes draining of the fields unnecessary.

PRESIDENT'S "CONTACT MAN" ENTERS "LITTLE CABINET"—Former Representative Charles West, of Ohio, who has been President Roosevelt's "contact man" with congress on New Deal legislation, is sworn in at Washington as undersecretary of the interior. Left to right: Floyd E. Dotson, chief clerk; West, and Secretary of the Interior Harold L. Ickes.

TWO WOMEN TRIED FOR MURDER—Eyes dark-ringed from much weeping, Blanche Dunkel, left, sits elbow to elbow in Chicago court with Evelyn Smith, with whom she confessedly plotted the death of her son-in-law, Ervin J. Lang. The prosecution pushed first-degree murder charge.

CARTOON STIRS JAPAN—William Gropper is the cartoonist whose recently published sketches showing Emperor Hirohito pulling a jinrikisha brought formal protest to Washington from Tokyo. Gropper is pictured at his drawing board in New York.

ASTOR AT DOCKS—Young John Jacob Astor, who recently became a proud father, is pictured on a New York pier watching the docking of the liner American Trader. Astor, descendant of the first John Jacob Astor, and who inherited part of the vast Astor fortune, is a clerk in the offices of a steamship line.

"EATS" THERMOMETER—Three-year-old Carlton Jackson, of Washington, D. C., found a thermometer in the back yard of his home. He liked the looks of the fluid in it. He bit into the thermometer. Then his mother heard shrieks. Carlton had swallowed the thermometer liquid, composed of alcohol and deadly dye. Hospital physicians hurriedly came and washed out Carlton's stomach. He now is seen with his sister, Anne, telling her all about it.

NO MORE COLLEGE FOR SIDESHOW BARKER—Officials of Antioch college, Yellow Springs, O., have disclosed the dismissal of Ann B. Sibley, 21-year-old Chicago co-ed, who was found, following a month's search, as a barker in a Coney Island sideshow. College authorities said the dismissal dated beyond Miss Sibley's disappearance and resulted from her alleged failure in two courses. Miss Sibley is shown above, holding a sword with which the announcer apparently severs her head a few minutes later. The job calls for long hours—at $14 a week.

PRESIDENT'S STAMP COLLECTION ON VIEW—Sara Jean Green of Washington, looks over some of the stamps from the collection of President Roosevelt, on display at the National museum, in preparation for the American Philatelic society's golden jubilee exhibition.