

Natives in India often carry flashlights for protection while traveling at night, for the sudden flare serves to frighten and blind wild beasts.

Trucks which become disabled on California highways at night must be guarded by flares or red lanterns 200 feet ahead and 200 feet behind the stalled vehicle.

Frances Dee and Francis Lederer will be seen for the first time as a starring team today at the Webb, in a new feature picture titled "The Gay Deception." Fiery little Jane Withers, star of "Ginger," will be the principal actor at the Webb beginning Thursday, in her latest picture, "This Is The Life." "Broadway Melody of 1936" is booked to begin Monday at the Webb.

The Carolina's bargain day program today offers "The Virginia Judge" starring Walter C. Kelly and Stepin Fetchit. It's a good story of a small town southern judge who'd rather give his victims thirty dollars than thirty days. Thursday begins a two day engagement of the famed radio networks nitwits, George Burns and Gracie Allen, in "Here Comes Cookie," a Paramount picture with George Barbier, Betty Furness and Broadway's favorite vaudeville headliners.
