Aiken Bank Robbed Of Near $10,000 AIKEN, S. C., Jan. 24.—Robbers took $9,303.37 from the Bank of Aiken in a holdup yesterday and made good their escape.

The robbery took place shortly after 10 a. m. with such startling swiftness that eyewitnesses gave confused accounts of what happened. Most agreed that three men entered the bank and held up the employees and 10 or 12 customers while at least one more robber waited outside.

W. O. Jones, cashier, said he was positive, however, that five came into the bank. Two persons who saw the bandit car leave said only three men were in it and officers considered the possibility that two cars were used.

Climate Please? Question Asked On Newest Liner

CLYDEBANK, Scotland.—(AP)—Britain's giant, new transatlantic liner Queen Mary, whose maiden voyage to the United States is set for May, is to have air conditions suited to every whim, including perfumed air for the ladies. Arctic blasts may swirl in one cabin, while next door the warmer-minded passenger may switch on an atmosphere as hot as the Persian gulf. Each of the 2,000 cabins has its own "gadget" for climate control. Exotic fragrances will be on tap for women passengers, and a flick of the lever will rid their rooms of cigarette smoke, which will be emptied by suction fans.
