Relief for "Iced-In" Fire Islanders

There's nothing in names as you can see here. These U. S. Coast Guardsmen are again playing the dual roles of samboists and life savers in bringing food and necessary supplies to the marooned winter residents of Fire Island, off the Long Island coast, where it is decidedly "not so hot" these days.

Zero Blasts of King Winter Fetter Niagara

Record-shattering storms that swept down from the Canadian northwest gripped Niagara Falls in sub-zero temperatures for days, fettering the flow of the mighty cataract. Here is a view of the American side of the falls, from the gorge. The entire falls and gorge froze so solidly that hundreds of spectators took advantage of the opportunity to walk about at the foot.

Johnston's Cousin Arrested in S. C.

ANDERSON, S. C., Feb. 19.—(P)—Two Seneca liquor dealers yesterday swore out warrants for E. C. Johnston of Anderson, and L. C. Graham, state constable who was recently suspended on charges of swindling and defrauding. C. C. Price and F. H. Blakely charged that Johnston accepted $100 and $150 respectively from them under the pretense that he could use his influence with Graham and other state constables that handle cases charging infraction of the liquor laws. They said the cases were not pressed and later Johnston returned the money to them.

Johnston, a cousin of Governor Johnston and associated with the governor's father in business here, declared there is not a word of truth in the charges. The whole thing, he said, is a political frame-up engineered by Oconee county enemies of the governor.
