NEW DEAL HOSTS POUR INTO PHILLY FOR CONVENTION

PWA Grants Totaling $582,120 Seem Certain For Cleveland County

President's Signature To Relief Deficiency Bill And Final Approval Lacking; High School Building Listed

Virtual assurance of the sum of $582,120 for PWA buildings and projects for Shelby, Kings Mountain and Cleveland county in general awaits the signature of President Roosevelt to the $1,425,000,000 relief deficiency bill which was sent to the White House just before the adjournment of Congress Saturday night.

The projects which were approved and which would be financed in the new PWA, unless otherwise eliminated are:

- 1. Kings Mountain municipal improvements, consisting of street paving, sewer lines, etc., $96,363. 2. Shelby high school building, 24 rooms and auditorium, with gymnasium, fully equipped, $150,000. 3. Kings Mountain high school improvements, gymnasium, improvements on other school buildings, $62,727. 4. Electric power plant for Shelby, municipal project with which the city could make its own power with a new Diesel outfit, $225,000.

Grants Of 45 Percent Conferences with J. H. Grigg, county school superintendent and Mayor Harry S. Woodson, who prepared the initial applications for the projects indicated that the grants of 45 per cent of the half million dollars for buildings is not available, but will be if the president signs the bill, and if the items get final approval. They feel there is a great possibility of their being accepted. Contracts could not be let for at least 30 days following, however, due to legal requirements, but the work may be a reality by mid-summer.

A letter from PWA director H. C. Baily of Chapel Hill indicates that grants, in which the sponsor receives only 45 percent, are being preferred. Some of the projects call for both loans and grants.

If all the grants now listed as approved by PWA officials are passed under the new program, North Carolina will receive $7,250,000, and the projects will involve a total cost of about $16,000,000.

A municipal project filed by Mayor Woodson and which was not listed in the approved measures was one which called for a renovation of the city hall.

Morning Cotton LETTER

NEW YORK, June 22.—The buying was quite general at the close of last week and the prices were around the highest. The recent broadening in demand has been due mainly to the complete turnabout in the goods situation. Unfilled orders are said to have increased materially and mills are enjoying a real improvement in business covering a wider field of constructions. More attention is being paid to the supply situation both here and abroad. Weather conditions have recently become more satisfactory but the crop is late in many sections and susceptible to a possible insect damage later on.

We believe the major trend is still upward.—E. A. Pierce & Co.

Was Unconscious Till Noon Today

Mack Moore, Jr. And W. F. Sanders Hurt; Mother Visits From Rome.

Mack Moore, Jr., 20, of Rome, Georgia, was still in a semi-conscious condition at the Shelby hospital at noon today, following an accident in which he and W. F. Sanders, Kings Mountain youth were seriously injured Saturday evening. The motorcycle, driven by Moore, hit the Southern railroad tracks at the Margrace Mill crossing and skidded at a terrific speed off a nearby embankment.

Sanders was recognized by some friends who rode by after the wreck and was rushed to the Gastonia hospital where attaches announced that he was injured badly and had three scalp wounds of five, three and two inches. According to Kings Mountain police, Sanders was resting nicely this morning.

Moore, however, was not moved (Continued on page eight)

Relief Promised From 2 Sources, The AAA And Rain

Weatherman Is More Hopeful; AAA To Relieve Pressure On Rules.

Two promises of relief faced the farmers of the drought stricken southeast today—in the form of a promise of rain by the weather man and in a further liberalization of the soil conservation rules by the farm administration.

The weather forecast today gives promise of some showers in this vicinity, and in other sections of the state. Heavy rains have fallen in the past two days in the western and eastern areas, and showers in various sections are said to have almost broken the drought in places.

In Cleveland county nearly all the townships save No. 1, No. 3 and No. 7 have had rain, but those three sections are in serious straits. There are no full stands of cotton, corn or even gardens. One dejected farmer said today that "this is the first year I have ever plowed cottonseed. I don't believe I will make a thing doing it."

In Washington farm leaders conferred on the possibility of making some special provisions for the farmers in the dry territory. W. B. Camp, director of the southern division said:

"It is entirely possible that rain will come in time for practically all of these producers to plant summer legumes or other crops, such as sorghum, Sudan grass, or millet, which if handled in accordance with instructions contained in the applicable bulletin, will qualify as soil-conserving acreage" the letter said.

"It is also possible that many of these producers may plant soil conserving crops in the fall of 1936 on land from which no soil depleting crop has been harvested in 1936, and meet the minimum requirement of soil conserving crops and thereby qualify for soil conserving payment."

Young People in Charge The entire meeting at the Baptist church has been turned over to the young people who are serving in the choir, and are acting as ushers. Mrs. Ben Suttle is in charge of the young people's choir, and Paul Wilson is in charge of the ushers and special committees.

Dr. Morgan Indorsed Shelby pastors have indorsed Dr. Morgan's teaching as being free from denominational teaching, and calling it an explanation and exposition of the Bible.

The Rev. E. C. Cooper, pastor of the Lutheran church, in a communication to The Star, urges all persons of every denomination to hear Dr. Morgan. The Rev. Mr. Cooper says "To see him in action and to hear the matchless interpretation, is to see and hear a master in his field. His sole purpose is to make the Word live again and carry its own message. To this end he brings to bear his depth of conviction, his life-time study of the Word, his breadth of scholarship and culture, his keen analytic mind. His native and inherited genius for interpretation, his intense and striking personality, his simple nature, and his love for his fellowmen."

The government of the United States as a litigant has no greater right than the humblest citizen, said his opinion.

Co would thoroughly test constitutionality of the holding company law. Cummings' plea that a multiplicity of suits brought by the utility interests threatened to bring down the machinery of the department of justice failed to win over the appellate court.

Speaking for it, Associate Justice Josiah A. Van Orsdel said issues ranged in the cases here were not all identical with those in the bond and share case.

The court reversed the stay order entered in the case several months ago by Justice Jennings Bailey of the District supreme court.

Justice Bailey granted the stay after Attorney General Cummings had argued that litigation brought by the government in New York against the Electric Bond and Share

Pretty Flyer

Pretty Katherine May decided a million miles was enough flying for one girl and resigned her job as stewardess with a commercial airline company to become a June bride. Miss May, one of the eight girls hired in 1930 when the stewardess idea was originated, completed her millionth mile by air this month. The lucky fellow was Ted Johnson, a dispatcher at Salt Lake City for the same airline.

Vote Absentee! At Least Vote, Asks McSwain

A statement was issued this morning by Peyton McSwain, Democratic chairman of Cleveland county, predicting this county will again cast more than 10,000 votes for its native son, Clyde R. Hoey.

He said that it is vitally important that all persons who are registered should plan to vote on July 4. "The Democratic party has indorsed Mr. Hoey. He is our native son, and we are proud of his character and his record."

"I want to emphasize that everyone plan to vote. If not at the box to plan to use the absentee ballot. Election officials have these ballots in hand and will be glad to assist anyone who is either ill or who knows now they will not be here for the election."

Chairman McSwain also said that workers in the Hoey headquarters will assist in getting the ballots, and will take them to the voter or mail them. Headquarters is in the Charles Hotel and the telephone number is 744.

Senator Josiah William Bailey, senior senator from North Carolina at Washington today authorized the following statement in support of Clyde R. Hoey for governor:

"I have known Clyde Hoey ever since we were young newspapermen together. He was with the Cleveland Star and I was with the Biblical Recorder. I have kept up with him all through the years and a real friendship has developed between us. Rarely in my life have I known a man of finer character and more ability. I know no one more devoted to our state and our party."

Leaders At Democratic Meet

These men figured prominently as the nation's outstanding Democrats converged on Philadelphia for the party's national convention. Main business of the convocation was the renomination of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and Vice President John N. Garner, left and right at top. A keynote speech by Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky followed opening of the convention by Postmaster General Joseph T. Robinson of Arkansas was elected permanent chairman, while Senator Robert Wagner of New York, as head of the resolutions committee, began directing the important task of framing the party's platform. Farley, Barkley, Robinson, and Wagner are shown left to right.

Plan Democratic Rally Here To Hear Roosevelt Address

Plans for a big Democratic rally for Saturday night at which time the acceptance speech of President Roosevelt will be broadcast are being made by local Democrats.

Tentative arrangements call for the speech to be broadcast over the loud-speaker system at the Cleveland Cloth Mills baseball park during the ball game.

All over the county similar meetings will be held and efforts are being made to provide entertainment features. Therefore in Shelby proposal has been made to utilize the ball game Saturday night between Hickory and Shelby as the entertainment feature for the crowd.

A committee, to be appointed within the next day or two by Everett Houser, in charge of arrangements for the acceptance speech rally, will get in touch with as many Democrats as possible, urging them not only to attend the rally at the ball park but to make initial contribution to the Democratic campaign fund.

Local Democrats are watching with intense interest the political maneuverings at the convention in Philadelphia this week. Despite the Al Smith anti-Roosevelt move, there is little doubt here but that he will be nominated.

Senator Bailey Is For Hoey Statement in Capital Shows

Senator Josiah William Bailey, senior senator from North Carolina at Washington today authorized the following statement in support of Clyde R. Hoey for governor:

"I have known Clyde Hoey ever since we were young newspapermen together. He was with the Cleveland Star and I was with the Biblical Recorder. I have kept up with him all through the years and a real friendship has developed between us. Rarely in my life have I known a man of finer character and more ability. Any intimation that he would be controlled by anybody or would not serve all our people unselfishly and intelligently offends against the opinion of everyone who knows him as I do. I would be willing to trust anything I have with him. He is a true man, a true Democrat and a true North Carolinian. Of course I will stand with him in any fort and anywhere his character and ability are brought into question."

The senior North Carolina senator had indicated his support of

Mr. Hoey declared: "The American people have the utmost faith in President Roosevelt, and the bitter attack made upon him on the eve of the Philadelphia convention will be fruitless. The whole nation stands back of him. His great struggle to save this

Curtain Raiser Of Cheers Given Roosevelt Colors

Sneers And Scorn Thrown At Smith

Is Apparent Convention Has No Intention To Follow Unhappy Warrior.

(By Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, June 22.—The New Deal host rolled into Philadelphia today in colorful convention array, shouting a curtain raiser of cheers for Franklin D. Roosevelt and a chorus of sneers for another one time party nominee, Alfred E. Smith.

One after another the arriving party leaders joined in the barrage of scorn, sarcasm, and ridicule which fell in Smith's direction for his statement last night in New York, asking that Roosevelt and his policies be repudiated at the Democratic convention opening tomorrow.

It was quite apparent that the delegates had no intention of following Smith's advice. Roosevelt's domination of the convention was conceded everywhere. The party platform is being written at the White House. The administration's proposal to change the party nominating rule is expected to triumph easily and the way seems entirely clear for the renomination of Roosevelt and Garner before the week-end.

Governor Herbert Lehman of New York was one of the early arrivals in the president and spoke out today who repledged full faith against the course adopted by Smith and the four others who joined in last night's statement. These men, Lehman said had expressed the sentiment of "only a handful" of Democrats.

The only convention business today was the meeting of the national committee to consider delegates from Minnesota, Puerto Rico and the Canal Zone.

Senator Bennett Clark of Missouri who will be chairman of the rules committee, went into consultation measuring the opposition to the Roosevelt plan of scrapping the ancient two-thirds rule which requires a two-thirds vote instead of a simple majority for nomination. Adoption of the plank is indicated but the Roosevelt men say they have the votes and some to spare.

Congress Adjourns After Passing New Taxation Measure

The senate of the 74th congress, after breaking the grip of a drab filibuster over the Guffey-Vinson coal control bill, finally adjourned at 11:58 p. m. Saturday night. The house followed with adjournment at 12:30 a. m. Sunday morning.

Senator Byrd of Virginia bitterly opposed the new tax bill passed, calling it a "mongrel, hybrid compromise." He said it would damage the Democratic party and the entire national and "completely revolutionize the philosophy of corporate taxation in this country."

Senators Hastings, Republican of Delaware, and Gerry, Republican of Rhode Island, also argued against the bill which was stoutly defended by Senator LaFollette, Progressive of Wisconsin.

The measure was voted on at 2:30, the agreed time, and the bill was enacted and sent to the president. The key provisions of the corporate tax system of the new measure are as follows:

8 per cent on the first $2,000. 11 per cent on the next $13,000. 13 per cent on the next $25,000. 15 per cent on all over $40,000. Surtax on undistributed profits: 7 per cent on the first 10 per cent of undistributed earnings. 12 per cent on the next 10 per cent. 17 per cent on the next 20 per cent. 22 per cent on the next 30 per cent. 27 per cent on all over 60 per cent.

Corporation dividends also are subject to the 4 per cent normal income tax.
