Two Electrocuted On Murder Counts At State Prison

RALEIGH, Sept. 4 .- (AP)-J Buck) Garden of Dunn and George Alston, Chapel Hill negro, died by electrocution at state's prison tday for having committed murder.

Their execution left only one man under sentence of electrocution in the state, John Pressley, of Gaston county, as lethal gas was substituted for the current by the 1935 legislature for all persons convicted of capital crimes committed after July 1 1935. Alston was electrocuted first after making the statement he had killed his sweetheart, Helen
