

THE DAY'S NEWS IN PICTURES

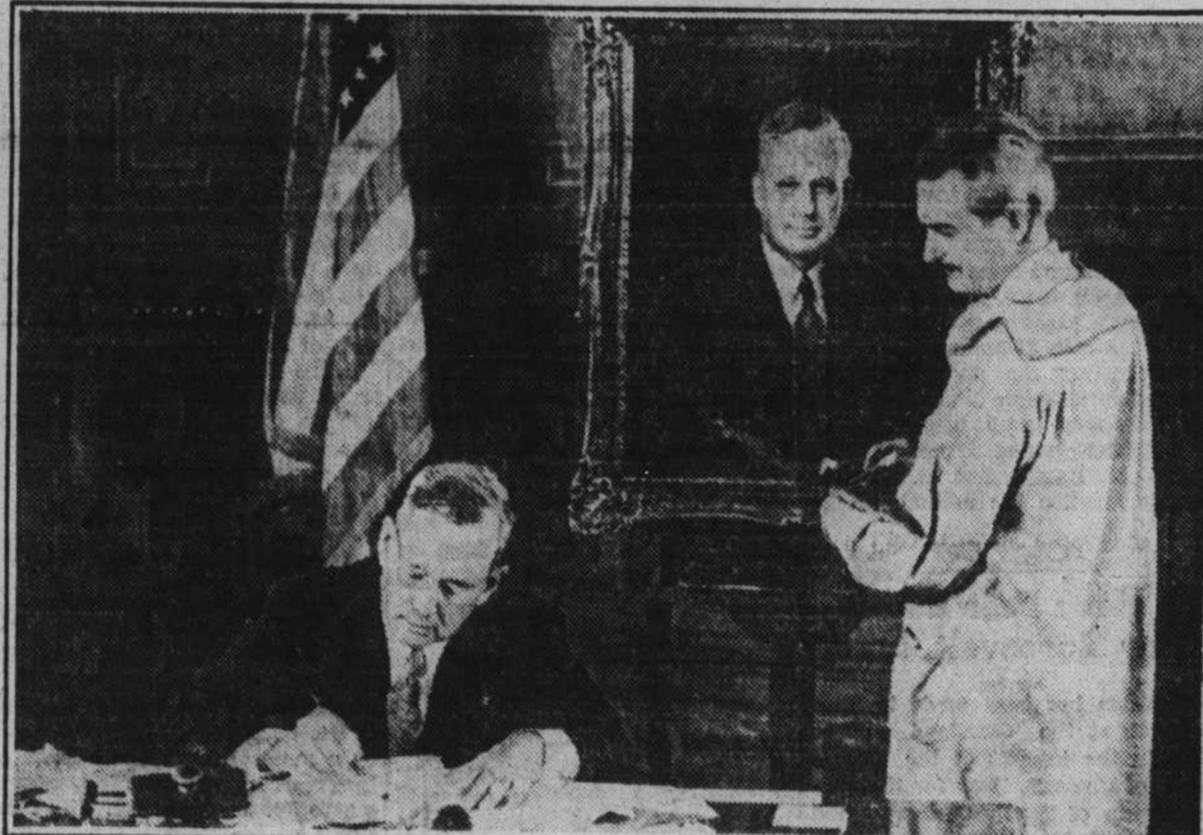

YES, WE HAVE LARGE FAMILIES—So these Italian mothers tell Premier Mussolini, shown chatting with them during a lull in army maneuvers at Potenza.

SPANISH REFUGEES FLEE TO FRANCE—Fleeing from death in the bombardment that preceded the capture of Irun by rebels, Spanish civilians are pictured above on their arrival at Hendaye, a French border town. Many persons, however, perished in Irun, particularly when the city was taken and the invaders swept through the streets.

ANOTHER RECORD—The British liner Queen Mary is breaking records on nearly every crossing these days. Here she is arriving in Southampton, England, following the fastest west-east crossing by a steamer. Crowded excursion boats come out to greet her.

GOVERNOR LANDON POSES FOR A PORTRAIT—Gov. Alfred M. Landon, Republican presidential candidate, is shown posing at his desk in Topeka for John Doctoroff, Chicago artist. The painting is near completion.

NUDIST SISTERS "BURY HATCHET"—When Queen Tanya Cubitt, left, of the San Diego exposition nudist colony celebrated her birthday, her sister, Ruth, disgruntled for months because her sister had usurped her throne, kissed and made up.

THIS IS LUXURY!—Mrs. Beryl Markham, 33-year-old English mother who flew the Atlantic, solo, east to west, relaxes in her hotel suite in New York. She regrets that her plane was forced down in Nova Scotia, thus preventing a flight straight to New York—but she is happy she escaped with merely a scratch.

Fashions of the Fashionable

THE BOLERO SUIT—Marie Davies, film star, wears this three-piece bolero suit of midnight blue. The skirt has the barest suggestion of a flare. The bolero coat has a row of white buttons down one side of its front opening.

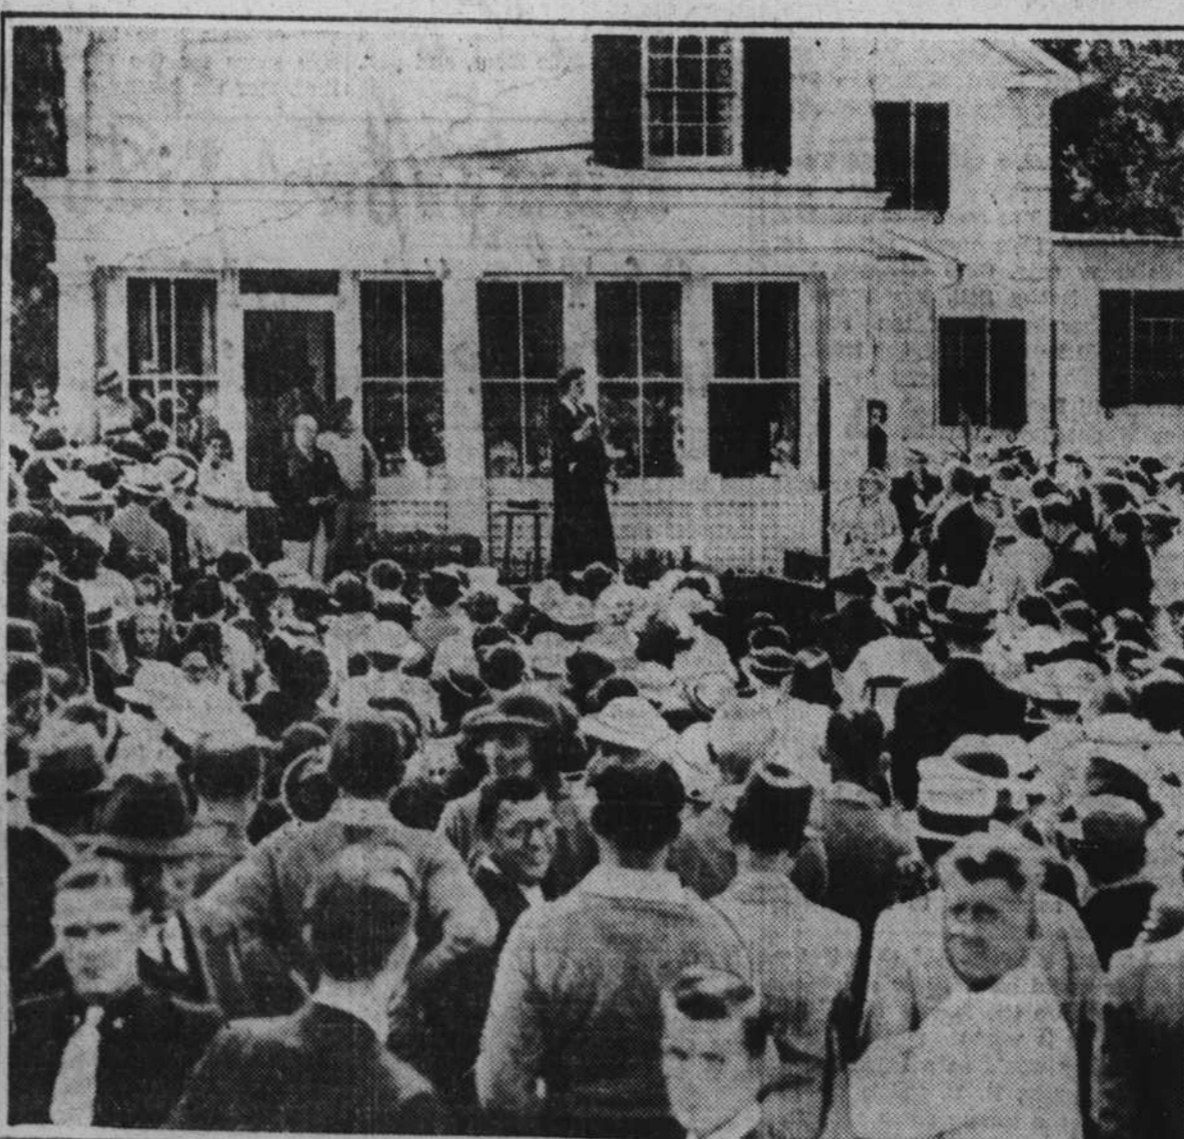

NOW—THE AIR-BIKE!—A young inventor in Paris, Francois, is pictured with his "airplane-bicycle" at an exhibition of inventions. The propeller attached to the bicycle is said to be a decided asset in aiding its speed.

WELCOME HOME!—Home from the Olympic "war" in Berlin, where he won the diving championship, Marshall Wayne is affectionately greeted by his wife at Miami, Fla.

THREE SISTERS WED ON SAME DAY—Yes—and the day is Sept. 19. The happy young women are Ruth, left; Estelle, center, and Anna Fritz, of Chicago.

"GOING, GOING, GONE"—FOR ELSIE JANIS—Before a crowd of admirers and curious visitors, Elsie Janis, former stage star, is pictured acting as the auctioneer during a sale of her household possessions at North Tarrytown, N. Y. The auction marks the first step in Miss Janis' proposed plan to devote the remainder of her life to "making other people happy".
