

THE DAY'S NEWS IN PICTURES

PROUDEST BOY IN NEW YORK?—Tim Sullivan is bat keeper for the New York Yankees during the world series. Millions of boys would like to change places with him.

WORST FOREST FIRE OF YEAR—Sweeping through Oregon timberland brings distress to many and causes heavy losses. This is an air view.

THE "GLORY" OF WAR—The top picture shows dead prisoners outside the courtyard of Salvoobos prison in Huelva province, reputedly executed by Loyalists. The lower photograph shows battle-scarred rebel troops returning to rebel headquarters at Burgos, Spain, on a furlough.

PROMINENT EXHIBITOR—Among exhibitors at the annual dog show of the Westbury Kennel association at Old Westbury, L. I., is Mrs. Clarence H. Mackay, the former Anna Case, singer. She is shown with her dog, Brownie of Roslyn.

A MAYOR SALUTES HIS PRINCESS—AND HER FIANCE—The mayor of Amsterdam waves his plumed hat in salute to Princess Juliana of Holland and her fiance, Prince Bernhard Zur Lippe-Biesterfeld at the Amsterdam stadium while thousands cheer.

SOMETHING NEW FOR A KING—A new game—"arrow-golf"—tried by King Edward VIII of Great Britain, on the links near Vienna, may gain great popularity. The game is the invention of Dr. Fiehler-Mandorf and features an arrow instead of a golf ball. The king has ordered hundreds of sets to be sent him in England.

FLYERS FOUND AFTER 30-DAY SEARCH—Air-Craftsman Joseph A. Forty, left, and Flight Lieutenant Sheldon Coleman, center, for whom a search had been made for 30 days over 60,000 square miles of northern Canada, are pictured with Air Mechanic Hartley at Point Lake, Alta., Canada. Hartley was a member of the rescue plane that found the missing men at Point Lake, 900 miles north of Edmonton. The flyers were forced down when their compass, made erratic by a heavy load of metal in their plane, carried them off their course.

Central Press Association, 1936

Fashions of the Fashionable

SWAGGER COAT FOR COLLEGE WARDROBE—A dress-type swagger coat is a wise choice for a college wardrobe, according to Olivia De Havilland, movie player, who models a gray kidskin five-eighths length boxed coat, above. The coat has melon sleeves with folds at the shoulder line. The saucer collar may be softened with a perky bow of taffeta or chiffon.

FRENCH AUTO RACER IN U. S.—Philippe Etancelin, noted French auto racer, arriving in New York, plans to compete in the Vanderbilt cup races at the Roosevelt Speedway on Long Island, Columbus Day.

BUSTER "BUSTED"?—So he tells his lawyer, David Berger, right, in New York where Keaton, the screen comedian, is fighting a suit of his divorced wife to force him to pay $300 monthly. Keaton, making a film comeback, says he is unable to pay Natalie Talmadge Keaton $4,500 he owes her for support of their two sons.

STILL ANOTHER CONVENTION—Cleveland, which has been the host to a continuous line of conventions this year, is host yet another—the American Hospital association. Here we see Robin C. Buerki, of Madison, Wis., retiring president, speaking.