New Officers Installed As Juniors Begin New Year

It's a new year and a new beginning for the Shallotte Junior Woman's Club as new officers were installed, new members welcomed and awards were presented at a Monday night meeting at the Sizzling Sirloin Steak House.

New officers are Lynn Ellis, president; Debbie Hewett, president-elect; Peggy Truesdale, first vice president; Ann Snow, second vice president; Rhonda DeSherbinin, secretary; Karen Cooper, treasurer; Robin Hobbs, historian; and Diane Holden, parliamentary advisor.

Pat Carriker of Wilmington, district president, installed the new officers.

Brenda Register, retiring president, was presented the Sandra D. Thomas Outstanding Club Woman award.

Other winners are Kelly Winfree, the Sylvia Tripp Congeniality Award; Donna Trest, the Kathryn C. Gainey Citizenship Award and the Sharon Bradsher Cranford Outstanding Department Chairman Award; Glenda Warren, the Tommie Glenn Outstanding New Club Woman

Award; and Kay Coleman, the Diane Holden Most Outstanding Non-Club Member Award.

New club members were installed by Sarah Dickens of Wilmington, District Junior Director. They are Pam Greenwood, Torie Williamson, Shelia McLamb and Lisa Pyc.

The Shallotte Juniors are an organization dedicated to the betterment of the community, a club spokesperson said. They sponsor many projects and fund-raising events throughout the year.

Council Workshop Will Address Financial Planning For Women

Financial planning for women is the topic of the first of three workshops scheduled in 1985 by the Brunswick County Council on the Status of Women.

Public relations chairman Tanya Long said the combination workshop and luncheon will be held Saturday, Jan. 19, beginning at 9:30 a.m., at the public assembly building at the Brunswick County Government Center in Bolivia. Arts and crafts demonstrations by several county women will also be part of the program.

Charlotte J. Shelton, an account executive with Merrill Lynch of Savannah, Ga., will speak. She holds a doctorate in history from the University of Virginia and was an instructor at Virginia Polytechnical Institute for five years before taking her present position with Merrill Lynch.

Topics will range from everyday budgeting to specifics on investment opportunities. Women living alone are especially encouraged to attend, said Ms. Long. A question and answer session will follow the talk.

The workshop and luncheon will cost $3.50. Tickets are available from Council members and from The Brunswick Beacon office in Shallotte or at the door.

Coffee and doughnuts will be served during registration.

Co-chairpersons of the event are council members Ina Mae Mintz and Margaret Shelton.

Upcoming workshops planned by the council include an April session on coping with stress and women's health and a September workshop on communication skills and building a positive self-image.

Widows Honored Over Holidays

Approximately 35 guests attended a Christmas party given Dec. 21 for widows of the Shallotte Point community.

Hostesses were Doris Scott, Marie Leonard and Emma Dale. The party was held at the Scott residence, which was decorated in a holiday motif. A Christmas tree was lighted on the front lawn.

Guests exchanged gifts and also received handmade gifts from their hostesses as well as fruit baskets from Shallotte First Baptist Church.

They also enjoyed hearing carolers from Jennies Branch Baptist Church.

According to a spokesman, the party was "a very warm and lovely gesture and was thoroughly enjoyed by all."

Miss Lewis Will Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Lewis of Route 2, Leland, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Debra Wayne Lewis, to Joseph Merion Coston of Castle Hayne.

The wedding will take place Saturday, Jan. 12, at 4 p.m. at Ogden Advent Christian Church in Ogden.

Friends and relatives of the couple are invited to attend. A reception will be held in the church fellowship after the ceremony.

Following a wedding trip, the couple will reside in Wilmington.

Wedding Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Frisby of Supply have announced the engagement of their daughter, Debbie, and Keith Clemmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Clemmons, also of Supply. The wedding is planned for March 30 at the bride's home. Both are graduates of West Brunswick High School. Miss Frisby is employed at Brunswick Professional Pharmacy and Clemmons is associated with Tidewater Industries in Shallotte.
