Endocrinologist Spoke To Local Diabetes Group

An endocrinologist from New Hanover Memorial Hospital, Dr. Jorge Gorzalez, spoke on types of diabetes and its causes at the first meeting of the new Brunswick Chapter of the American Diabetes Association's state affiliate.

The meeting was held Jan. 16 at Brunswick Technical College in Supply.

Jimmy Todd, a company sales representative, displayed information on home glucose monitoring and demonstrated his supplies and glucometer.

Before the meeting members of the board, who were only recently selected, met with state affiliate representative Bonnie Edwards to discuss their responsibilities.

The board consists of professionals, lay persons and diabetic persons. Officers for the Brunswick Chapter are Stephanie Faulk, president; Danny Sheffield, president-elect; Monica Price, vice president; Connie Wolfe, secretary; and Lee Oettinger, treasurer.

Other members include Dr. Marilyn Ain, Dr. Peter Almirall, Dr. Fred Krainin, Jim Brown, William Faulk, Zola Harrelson, Margaret Bordeaux, Mary Stanley, Fred Lesh, Janet Shew, Doug Pate, Marie Hart, Vera Williams, Beth Bauerschnitt, Martha Nance and William Carter.

The new chapter will help educate the public about diabetes mellitus and will help county residents who have diabetes to learn about the disease, how to care for themselves, and educate them about new products, treatment procedures and research in finding a cure.

At the chapter's next meeting, set Feb. 20 at 7:30 p.m. at the college's new campus in Supply, speaker Emily Rivenbark, R.N., will discuss "Diabetes: Focus on Feelings."

The meeting will be open to all interested persons.
