

Poster, Essay Contest Winners Honored

The best artists and writers in the county's elementary and primary schools were honored Sunday at the county complex as winners of the Brunswick Soil and Water Conservation District Poster and Essay Contest.

Fourth and fifth graders participated in the poster contest, while sixth graders composed the essays.

Grade winners at each school received $10 checks for their contributions to the contest. Those lucky enough to win the county competition received additional $10 checks. County winners will advance to state competition.

County winners in the poster contest are Alexander Waddell, a fourth grader at Leland Middle School, and Dean Duncan, a fifth grade student at Waccamaw Elementary.

The essay award went to Cris Russ, a sixth grader at Waccamaw Elementary.

Other poster grade winners include the following: Shallotte Middle — Amy Calson, fourth grade, and Cleon Butler, fifth grade; Southport Primary — Ezra Caroon, fourth grade; Leland Middle — Kayde Smith, fifth grade; Bolivia Elementary — Melissa Love, fourth grade, and Kelly Vittoe, fifth grade; Waccamaw Elementary — Jeffery Thomas, fourth grade.

Other essay grade winners include Shallotte Middle — Erika Farr; South Brunswick Middle — Ernie Wearren; and Leland Middle — Greg Brew.

Younger Republicans To Organize

Efforts have begun to organize a Brunswick County Young Republicans chapter.

John Dozier, county Republican Party chairman, said an organizational meeting by the N.C. Federation of Young Republicans will be held 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Brunswick County Republican Headquarters on U.S. 17 at Bolivia.

Bobby Hurst, a national Republican committeeman and former state chairman, will attend.

All Republicans ages 18 to 40 are welcome to attend this organizational meeting, said Dozier.
