

Trojans Top South Brunswick, Drop TRC Opener To Vikings

BY JOHNNY CRAIG
 West Brunswick, led by Timmy Ludlum's near-perfect pitching performance, broke a three-game baseball losing streak Saturday with a 5-1 nonconference win over South Brunswick. Ludlum limited the Cougars to just two hits while striking out a career-high 10 batters.
 Earlier in the week the Trojans opened defense of their Three Rivers 3-A Conference crown with a 5-1 loss at West Columbus.

Brunswick, 5-1.
 Trojan pitcher Timmy Ludlum picked up his first win of the season while going the distance in his first complete game.
 The Cougars took a 1-0 lead in the first inning when Richie Labelle singled to start the game, stole second and scored on West Brunswick center fielder Henry Stevenson's error.
 The South Brunswick lead stood until the fourth when the Trojans tied the game on the Cougars' third baseman Anthony Jackson's error and Craig Johnson's only hit.
 The Trojans exploded in the fifth for four runs on designated hitter Alan Stewart's hit and two errors by the Cougars' David Moyer and Scott York and Derek Long's double. Keith Stanley followed the barrage with a single and Matt Gore cleaned the bases with his two-run double.
 Labelle and Glen McCuen had the only hits for South Brunswick.
 Moyer took the loss for the Cougars going 4.2 innings and allowing six hits and four earned runs.
