Pilot Club Organizes With 21 Members

A new service organization for business women, the Pilot Club of the South Brunswick Islands, officially organized last week with 21 charter members.

A formal charter night is planned Saturday, Aug. 24, at 6:30 p.m., with all Pilots and their spouses (called Co-Pilots) to attend.

Officers were installed Tuesday, July 30, in a ceremony at United Carolina Bank in Shallotte, with Virginia Brown of the Wilmington Pilot Club as installing officer. The Wilmington club sponsored the local organization, the first Pilot Club in Brunswick County.

Officers for the newly-chartered club are Sherry Roseman, president; Rita Canfield, vice president; Jean Borrell, corresponding secretary; Gail Seagle, recording secretary; and Marilyn Bodman, treasurer. Directors and their terms are Tanya Long, one year; Rosie Scarborough, two years; and Sarah Tripp, three years.

Other charter members are Sammie Nunn, Sue Johnson, Vicky Arvidson, Kay Couvillon, Sheree Bellamy, Hattie Brown, Wendy Ward, Joyce Carter, Jill Richards, Martha Wilkerson, Betty Watt, Greta Bolick and Barbara Russ.

Pilot Club is a civic-service organization for executive and professional women, operating under the basic principles of friendship and service. Membership is by invitation only.

Society Meets At Brunswick Town

The Brunswick County Historical Society will meet Monday, Aug. 12 at 7:45 p.m. in the Visitors Center at Brunswick Town.

The program will feature James Barclay, who will speak on "The Port of Brunswick." Visitors are welcome for this and other quarterly programs on Brunswick County's history.

The society encourages the study and preservation of local history and endeavors to have all communities represented in its membership.

Becks Have A Baby Girl

Rudy and Gail Beck of Holden Beach have announced the birth of a daughter, Rachel Gail Beck, born July 23.

Rachel weighed seven pounds and 12 ounces at birth. She joins a sister, Heather, who is 11.

Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Hinton Fulford of Holden Beach and her paternal grandparents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Beck Sr. of Bolivia.

Engaged

The engagement and forthcoming wedding of Margaret Ruth (Martie) Abercrombie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edens of Route 1, Supply, has been announced. The groom-elect, Steven B. Martin, is the son of Mrs. Abel Martin of South Carolina. Ms. Abercrombie and Mr. Martin are both residents of Lakeland, Florida. A date was not announced for the wedding, which will be by invitation only.

Holden Seniors To Make Music

A sing-along with "shower sopranos, bathroom baritones, closet contraltos and everyone who just likes to enjoy music" will highlight the Aug. 12 meeting of the Holden Beach Senior Citizens.

"If we can't have perfection, we at least will have enthusiasm!" promised spokesman Myrtle Hanke.

The group meets at 7 p.m. at the Seashore Road home of Virginia Craig.

Also, the winner of a chicken scratch quilt made by the group's Thursday afternoon craft class will be announced.
