CHURCH ACTIVITIES

LDS Church Slates Clambake

The Shallotte Branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-day Saints will hold a traditional clambake Friday, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the new church meeting place on Mintz Street in Shallotte.

Cost is $5 for adults and $2.50 for children, with clams, shrimp, sausage and other items featured, said spokesman Lois Yandle. Proceeds will go to the building fund.

Challenge Posed

At the July 12 meeting of the Shallotte Women's Aglow Fellowship, guest speaker Marilyn Rej of Columbia, S.C., will challenge listeners to allow themselves to be used as instruments of Christ.

The fellowship meets at 9:30 a.m. at the Shallotte Middle School cafeteria in Shallotte, said Tom Ioss, publicity chairman.

Pamela Moon, president, invited women visiting area beaches on vacation to join the Fellowship.

Auto Dealer To Speak

Bill Grant, longtime president of an auto dealership in Greenville, N.C., will speak at the July 14 meeting of the Full Gospel Business Men's Fellowship.

The meeting at Jane's Seafood House on Holden Beach Road (N.C. 130) begins with an optional $7.50 seafood dinner buffet at 7 p.m., followed by the program at 7:30 p.m.

Grant was baptized in September 1978 and is a member of Faith & Victory Church and president of the Greenville chapter of the fellowship.
