

Legion Presents Memorial

The Shallotte American Legion Post presented a $150 check to the Shallotte Volunteer Rescue Squad last Wednesday in memory of Legionnaire Clarence Ed Hewett. In passing the check to Rescue Chief Janice Hargis, Post Commander Jim Buffaloe said Hewett was a faithful Post member for many years and served as sergeant-at-arms. On hand for the presentation was his brother, Skyline Hewett, former chief of the rescue unit (right), and Legion Services Office LeGrand Redwine (left).

'Rip Van Winkle' Part Of Leland Festival

Leland's Ole Tyme Festival, being held Saturday from 10 a.m. till 6 p.m. at Leland Park, will feature a performance of "Rip Van Winkle" by the Bits'n Pieces Theatre.

The musical, which includes giant puppets, will be presented at 10:15 a.m. and 1:55 p.m.

Other activities include a baby pageant, a pie-cooking contest and an ole timey costume contest, a women's softball tournament, clowns, arts and crafts, and games.

Continuous entertainment on two stages will include the Cape Fear Cloggers, New Steady Rockers, magician David Risley, and the County Gospel Singers, among others.

Admission is free to the event, sponsored by Brunswick County's Parks and Recreation Department and the Leland Community Action Group.

Quilt Project Will Benefit Volunteers

A quilt made by the Carolina Shores Quilters Guild, organized a year ago, will be given away with proceeds going to the Calabash Volunteer Rescue Squad and the Calabash Volunteer Fire Department.

The quilt may be seen as follows: Sept. 20, 10:30 a.m. till noon, Carolina Shores Clubhouse; Sept. 26, 10 a.m. till 7 p.m., and Sept. 27, 9 a.m. till 3 p.m., Calabash Fire House; Oct. 6-10, North Carolina National Bank, Calabash; Oct. 13-17, United Carolina Bank, Calabash; and Oct. 27-31, 9 a.m. till 5 p.m., Security Savings and Loan Assn., Calabash.

The drawing will be held at 8 p.m. Nov. 15 at the Calabash fire station. The price of a ticket is $1, or six for $5.

EMT Class Offered

Helen Potter will teach an EMT recertification class, sponsored by Brunswick Technical College, Sept. 19-21 at the Coastline Rescue Squad building on Hwy. 130.

Registration will take place on the first class date. Classes meet from 7-10 p.m.
