

Vereen, Jenkins Wed At Little Macedonia

Lillie Dorene Vereen of Route 2, Bolivia, and Sgt. John Scott Jenkins were married May 30 at 2 p.m. at Little Macedonia Baptist Church in Supply.

Rev. Charles Jacobs officiated the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Vereen of Bolivia. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Jenkins of New Orleans, La.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long formal gown of white satin and lace. It featured a front and back V-neck formed by scalloped Venise lace decorated with seed pearls and sequins. Jeweled

Venise motifs embellished the front bodice and cut out lace motifs with seed pearls adorned the leg-o'-mutton sleeves with pearl buttons at the cuff.

The basque waist was formed by jeweled Venise lace bands, with lace motifs cascading from the front skirt to the scalloped hemline. The chapel train completed the gown, with bands of cutout lace on the back skirt and train. Her veil of silk illusion was attached to a headband accented with a spray of seed pearls.

The bride carried a bouquet of white roses and babies' breath with greenery.

Her matron of honor was Dorcia

Harkless of Upper Marlboro, Md. and her maid of honor was Felita Vereen, her sister. They wore identical tea-length dresses of rose satin with V neck and back and carried nosegays of carnations.

Bridesmaids Pam Mumford of Chapel Hill, Karen Kirk of Wilmington and Titania Galloway of Bolivia wore the same tea-length rose satin dresses. They carried arm bouquets of white carnations.

Sgt. Jenkins chose Stanley Carter of Olar, S.C., as his best man. Ushers were Joseph Ashford III, James Jenkins of New Orleans, La., Henry White Jr. of Eastern Shores, Va., and Larry Chambers of Birmingham, Ala.

Music was provided by Margie Candler of Bolling Spring Lakes.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents hosted a reception at their home.

The newlyweds are making their home at Fort Bragg and Bolivia.

The bride is a graduate of South Brunswick High School and the University of North Carolina at Wilmington, where she earned a B.A. in recreation administration.

The groom is a graduate of St. Parish High School, New Orleans, and has been with the U.S. Army since 1982.

Library Offers Reading Club

Bookworms from two to 13 will find adventure and prizes this summer as participants in the West Brunswick Branch Library summer storytime and summer reading club.

Felecia Hardy, children's librarian, has arranged for treats ranging from a hat parade to computer lessons for young people who like to read.

Tuesdays will be story days in Shallotte, with storytimes scheduled from 10 to 10:45 a.m. and from 11 to 11:45 a.m. for preschoolers.

Older readers will explore their way through adventurous reading in reading clubs that begin July 7.

Four afternoons of art will give six to 13-year-olds a chance to learn shellcraft, kite-making, solar and t-shirt printing.

There is no fee for these programs and registration is not required. All Brunswick County children and visitors are invited to participate.
