Lewis, Kirby Wed At Sabbath Home

Krista Lynn Lewis and Tommy Kirby, both of Supply, were married May 30 at 3 p.m. in Sabbath Home Baptist Church at Holden Beach.

Rev. Franklin Myers officiated the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dora and Jack Lewis of Daytona Beach, Fla. The groom is the son of Sylvia Alexiou of Greensboro and Ray Kirby of Supply.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long gown of white silk, fashioned with scalloped neckline, long, tapered sleeves and fitted bodice inset with lace cutwork and sheer illusion. The narrow skirt ended in a flare. Her matching headpiece held a fingertip-length veil. Both gown and headpiece were designed with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a cascading silk bouquet of white silk roses, babies breath and greenery.

Mary Normand of Supply was her maid of honor. She wore a tea length silk gown of deep rose and carried a cascading bouquet of silk roses. Bridesmaids were Kay Croom and April Lane, both of Carolina Beach, and Felicia Galloway of Supply. They wore identically fashioned gowns of light rose, with similar bouquets. Brooke McCumbee of Supply was flower girl.

The groom chose John Perry Robinson of Supply as his best man. Groomsman were Trent Phelps, Gary Phelps and Ricky Clemmons, all of Supply. Calob Robinson, also of Supply, was ringbearer.

Wedding music was provided by Shelia Lancaster, with vocalists Sandy and Wayne Johnson singing "Always." All three are from Supply.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Brunswick County Shrine Club in Bolivia.

Following a honeymoon on Bald Head Island, the newlyweds are making their home in Supply.

The bride is attending Brunswick Technical College, with a cosmetology major, and working part-time at The Salt Peddler shop in Holden Beach.

The groom is employed in construction.
