CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Mt. Pisgah Slates Revival

The Rev. Farrell Shimpock of Asheboro will be the evangelist for revival services that begin Sunday, Sept. 6, at Mt. Pisgah Baptist Church near Supply.

Services will continue through Thursday, Sept. 10, at 7:30 p.m. each day.

Rev. Shimpock has held several pastorates in North Carolina and is presently pastor of Greystone Baptist Church in Asheboro. He is known as a dynamic speaker and evangelist, according to Rev. Truette Rogers, host pastor.

Rev. Rogers and church members invite the public to join them in the services.

Singing Planned

The Coates Family will be the featured group in a gospel sing on Sunday, Sept. 6, at 6 p.m. at Oak Grove Baptist Church.

The church is located on N.C. 130 east of Shallotte (Holden Beach Road).

All are welcome to attend.

Camp Meeting Begins

A three-day event billed as an "old-fashioned camp meeting" begins today (Thursday) at Shallotte Middle School and continues through Saturday with services at 7:30 o'clock nightly.

Featured evangelist is Dr. Don Sauls of Dunn, director of the Pentacostal Free Will Conference of North Carolina.

Each service will feature special music also: Crossbearer, a gospel trio from Wilmington, on Thursday; Kingsway, a Shallotte group, and the Young Adult Choir of Cedar Grove Missionary Baptist Church on Friday, and the Calvary Baptist Church Quartet from Conway, S.C., on Saturday.

No admission will be charged. The event is being sponsored by 15 Shallotte area churches of various denominations.

"We hope to make this an annual event each fall," said spokesman Dot Worth.

Sing Planned

A fellowship dinner and afternoon gospel sing are planned Sunday, Sept. 6, following the 11 a.m. worship service at Sharon United Methodist Church near Holden Beach.

Spokesman R.L. Hewett said the gospel sing will feature special music by Terry and Julie Willetts, Tamala Grissett and Sonja Walton.

Fish Fry Set

The Men's Club of Dixon Chapel United Methodist Church will hold a fish fry at Honey's Place in Varnumtown on Saturday, Sept. 5, starting at 12 noon.

Each plate of freshly-caught fish will cost $4. Proceeds will be used to help needy residents of the community.

Special gospel singing by Von Ferguson, Penny Gray and Jenny Varnum will be featured.

Park Features Sing

Ray Faircloth Jr., The Prophetic Voices, Tim and Debra Watson, Vince Moore and the Harvest Outreach Singers will be featured Saturday in a gospel sing that begins at 7:30 p.m. at Harvest Inspirational Park.

The park is located on the Holden Beach Road (N.C. 130 east of Shallotte) beside Jane's Seafood Restaurant.

Hotdogs and refreshments will be available.

Audience members are asked to bring their own lawn chairs.

Last Service

Sunday, Sept. 6, marks the close of the summer 1987 season of worship services on the strand at Ocean Isle Beach.

Sponsored by Shallotte Presbyterian Church, the outreach service begins at 8:30 a.m.

Dress is casual; participants are to bring their own seating.

Fall Clean-Up Set At Cemetery

Fall clean-up begins Saturday, Sept. 5, at the Griffin Cemetery in Ash.

Those with relatives or other loved ones buried in the cemetery are asked to participate, said Doris Gore. She added, "We want all to come who can because it really needs cleaning."

Work begins at 7:30 a.m. and volunteers should bring mowers, rakes and other yard-care equipment.

The cemetery is located on S.R. 1331, Mill Branch Road.
