

Johnson, Jenkins Wed At Ocean Isle

Regina Karen Johnson and Robert Elmore Jenkins were married Saturday, Nov. 7, at 2 p.m. at The Winds Beach Resort at Ocean Isle Beach.

Magistrate Lela Osborne officiated the double-ring ceremony, which was held in the The Winds Garden Room in a natural setting of palm trees.

Soloist Phyllis G. James sang "You Needed Me," "To Me," and "More."

The bride is the daughter of Ruth C. Johnson of Shallotte and Edward James Johnson of Penderlea. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore R. Jenkins of Teachey.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of silk tissue taffeta, fashioned with a modified Sabrina neckline edged with Alencon lace. The full skirt, appliqued with lace medallions, was caught up in the back with a small, puffed bustle and extended into a chapel train.

The veil was adorned with pearls and was attached to a floral wreath of silk flowers, pearl sprays and crystal beads.

She carried a bouquet of bridal white roses with sprays of pearls, babies' breath, miniature ivory carnations and a touch of royal blue statice.

Patricia Jean Leonard, a friend, was her maid of honor. Patricia C. Johnson, the bride's sister-in-law, was her bridesmaid.

They wore periwinkle blue gowns in the directoire's style, with soft pleated neckline, tulip sleeves and soft draped skirt and wore a garland of babies' breath in their hair. Their bouquets consisted of gold buttons, babies' breath, royal blue statice, bridal white roses and miniature carnations with off-white streamers.

The groom chose his father as best man. Perry Lee Johnson, brother of the bride, ushered.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in The Winds Garden Room.

After a honeymoon trip to Florida, the couple will live at Pine Lake Village, Shallotte.

The bride is employed by Baxley & Trest law firm in Shallotte. The groom is employed by Tom Hunter, aerial p.c. traits.

Toastmasters Club Formed

More than 40 persons, including 34 prospective members, attended a Toastmasters International demonstration meeting held Tuesday morning in Shallotte.

Don Eggert, elected temporary president by the group, said that because of the excellent initial response, the period in which charter memberships will continue to be accepted will end Nov. 30.

The club will meet for breakfast from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. each Tuesday at Joe's Barbecue in Shallotte.

Speakers for the Nov. 17 meeting will be Ce-Ce Gore and Connie Powell, who will give their "Ice Breaker" get-acquainted speeches. Also, club members will vote on a name for the club and select a nominating committee and charter night planning committee.

The charge for charter members is $35, which includes six months national and local dues as well as new member fees. For most individuals, the charges are tax-deductible as a business-related expense.

Special guests for Tuesday's meeting included Jack Bohland of Winston-Salem, immediate past district (state) governor, and John Vrabel of Jacksonville, immediate past southeastern divisional governor.

"I'm really gratified by the turnout. It's more than we expected," said Eggert. "It's an indication to me that people want to improve themselves and know that better communication skills will help."

"I remember when I joined Toastmasters how excited I was and how it helped me. I know it will help them also."

More information on Toastmasters is available by contacting Eggert at 253-4361 days or 754-5082 evenings.

Bolivia School Honors Achievers

Bolivia Elementary School has begun an "all-out effort" to recognize staff and student achievement in eight areas, according to a news release.

The A-Team is composed of students in grades 1-5 who earn all As and Ss, with each student receiving a T-shirt from the PTA.

The Spelling 100 Club is for students in grades 1-5 who score 100 on each spelling test during a grading period.

Students who earn As, Bs and Ss in grades 4 and 5 attain the honor roll, while those in grades 1-3 earn membership in the Teddy Bear's Club, named for the school mascot.

A perfect attendance roll for students and staff is also posted for public viewing.

Also, kindergarten students are singled out for achievements in areas determined by the kindergarten teachers each grading period. Also, personal attainments are recognized and noted in daily announcements. Birthday ribbons are given to each student on the appropriate day.

Faculty and staff have an opportunity each month to make nominations for employee of the month and volunteer of the month, while bus drivers select one of their group for recognition each month.
