

Getting Carried Away

Helen Wooten (seated) was carted off by Al Odom after she bid $178,000 in chips for this wheelbarrow during last Friday's "Casino Night" auction sponsored by the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce.

Casino Night, now in its second year, raised about $5,500. Chamber President Don Evans (left) was one of the many people in attendance who got a kick out of Mrs. Wooten's antics.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Dozier Appointed To Commission

John F. Dozier of Boiling Spring Lakes has been appointed by Gov. Jim Martin to the Commission for Mental Health, Mental Retardation and Substance Abuse Services, effective immediately.

His term will run through June 30, 1991.

The 25-member commission establishes standards and adopts regulations for treatment of persons in institutions and area programs, hearing and appeals of area authorities, federal grant requirements, licensure of facilities and registration and restriction of controlled substances and advising the Secretary of the Department of Human Resources regarding all state plans and services.
