... Jennifer Susan Simons

Simons, Bowman Vows Exchanged In Hickory

Jennifer Susan Simons and Darrell Lynn Bowman, both of Sunset Beach, were married Saturday, April 23, in a 7 p.m. candlelight service at Highland United Methodist Church, Hickory.

Rev. Phillip Vaughn officiated the double-ring ceremony.

Candelabra intertwined with greenery and candles on the pews decorated the sanctuary.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Simons of Hickory. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas T. Bowman, also of Hickory.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a handsewn formal gown of white satin with sculptured V-neck accented with Venice lace, leg-o'-mutton sleeves. The dropped waist with lace-accented V-front, fell into a floor-length full skirt adorned with lace appliques and pearls, forming a chapel-length train. Her double-tiered fingertip-length veil was attached to a headband of silk flowers and pearls and she carried a cascading bouquet of silk blue and yellow roses, tiger lilies, babies' breath and daisies.

The bride chose as her maid of honor Julia A. Witherspoon of Hickory, her cousin, who wore a light blue tea-length taffeta gown accented with lace and bows and carried three silk roses.

Also attending her were Crystal A. Williams of Hickory, Mary Moore of Raleigh, Mary Barbee of Charlotte and Donna Bowman, sister-in-law of the groom. Their gowns were identical to that of the honor attendant; they each carried a single silk rose.

The groom chose his father as best man. Ushers were Army Sgt. Cary D. Bowman, brother of the groom; Air Force Sgt. William B. Simons, brother of the bride; Michael Moore of Raleigh; and John Barbee of Charlotte.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at American Legion Post No. 48 in Hickory.

The newlyweds are at home at 205 Shoreline Drive West, Sunset Beach.

The bride is a graduate of St. Stephens High School in Hickory and attended Western Carolina University. She is insurance clerk at Little River Medical Center, Little River, S.C.

Bowman is a graduate of Alexander Central High in Taylorsville and Western Carolina University. He is service manager for CBM Computer Center, Myrtle Beach, S.C.

The Details Count

So many details come together to make a perfect wedding! For example:

The guest book, sometimes called a bride's book, is one that all your wedding guests will sign; it makes a lovely souvenir of your wedding day, especially if it leaves room for loving comments. It's normally signed at the wedding, not the reception. How to make sure everyone signs? Position it at the end of the receiving line, at the table where reception guests get their seat assignments, or have an attendant assigned to pass it around from table to table during dinner.

While not strictly in holding with traditional etiquette, RSVP cards make life easier for both you and those you invite. You must include return postage if you use RSVP cards. A suggestion: use an index card file to catalogue the cards as they are returned; you can make notes on them as to gifts received and shuffle them to decide seating plans.
