

Health Fair Features Free Screenings, Birthday Cake

Grand Strand General Hospital's Health Fair '88 on May 14 at Briarcliffe Mall will be a double celebration, also marking the Myrtle Beach hospital's 10 anniversary.

The "You're Our Specialty" theme fair runs from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and will feature 38 booths of health-related agencies, many providing free services and information. Free services include vision screening, glaucoma screening, body fat measurements, height and weight, posture checks, oral cancer screening, blood sugar testing and computerized nutritional analysis.

And, for a $2 charge, a three-minute cholesterol level check will also be offered.

A full 24-panel blood test is offered for a $15 charge; patients must not eat or drink for eight hours before blood is drawn. Results of the test—which checks the functioning of several organs such as liver, kidney and lungs—will be mailed within three weeks.

At 10 a.m., representatives of both Myrtle Beach and North Myrtle Beach government will participate in a birthday cake-cutting ceremony in the J.C. Penney court. Birthday cake and soda will be served to fairgoers.

Those attending the fair are asked to register inside the mall near the K-Mart entrance.

New VFW Post To Install Officers

Officers of the new Holden Beach VFW Post No. 8866 will be installed at a dinner meeting May 20 at 7:30 p.m. at Betty's Waterfront Restaurant on Old Ferry Road.

To be installed are Harry Yoder, commander; John Nash, senior vice commander; Tink Lawing, junior vice commander; John Tandy, advocate; Jeff Conaway, surgeon; Earl Ellis, chaplain; and Bob Campbell, quartermaster.

Billy Ray Cameron of Sanford, a past national Veterans of Foreign Wars commander and Holden Beach property owner, will preside at the installation.

Also expected to attend are Glen

Milliman, state VFW commander; David Redwine, state representative; Benny Ludlum, District 2 commissioner; Jess Parker, county veterans' service officer; and dignitaries from other VFW posts in Brunswick County.

The installation dinner is not for members only, said Yoder, the incoming commander, but is for all who are interested in VFW activities as well as members' friends and families. Those who plan to attend are asked to call Bob Campbell in advance, at 842-2698, for seating reservations.

Dinner will be ordered from the menu.

Elks Women To See Demo

Make-up demonstrations by Tony Hicks, an Oil of Mink representative, are planned following the May 18 business meeting of the Calabash Elks Ladies Auxiliary.

The meeting begins at 7 p.m. at the Elks Lodge, Traders Village, Calabash.

Two members will be used as models, as Hicks offers advice on choosing make-up suited to the wearer.

Members will be bringing zip-lock bags with personal care items for delivery by Betty Wetzel and Edwina Snyder to Hope Harbor Home for use by the shelter's clients.

A dessert card party will be held at the Elks Lodge on June 2 at 1 p.m., for members and their guests.

Exercise class continue to meet from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays at the lodge; cost is $8 per month or $1 per class.

Profits from a recent cake and rummage sale will be shared with the Elks, with some set aside for the bingo games the auxiliary holds the fourth Monday of each month at the Brunswick Village residential care facility in Shallotte.

PWP Forming At Calabash

Single parents and grandparents are eligible to join a local Parents Without Partners being formed in the area.

An organizational meeting will be held Sunday, May 15, at 3 p.m. at the Elks Club in Calabash.

Single parents are asked to come and bring another single parent.

For more information, contact Selma High, 579-7519, or Betty Fields, 287-6837.

Dues of $5 are still payable for the 1988-89 club year, while new member also pay a $5 initiation fee which covers their name badge.

Eleven Seek Junior, Teen Miss Titles

Eleven contestants will compete for the titles of 1988 Junior and Teen Miss Brunswick County Pageant Saturday, May 14, at 7:30 p.m. at the Shallotte Middle School.

The current title-holders are Kim Davis of Shallotte and Tami Smith of Leland.

Mistress of Ceremonies will be Wendy Gay Williams, Miss Brunswick County. Featured performers will include the retiring queens, Miss Williams, Little Miss Brunswick County Allysun Abbott and Pre-Teen Miss Wilmington.

Contestants will participate in on-stage talent and evening gown competitions with winners to receive scholarship awards.

Private interviews will be conducted Saturday afternoon.

Admission to the pageant is $4 each, with tickets available at the door.

The five Junior Miss contestants, with their parents and talent area listed, include:

•Ashley Michele Marshall, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Marshall of Shallotte, who will perform a tap dance.

•Nancy Shanea Smith, 10, daughter of Earl and Paula Smith of Shallotte, tap dance.

•Gwyn Kristen Chappell, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Chappell of Calabash, jazz dance.

•Alicia Dawn Rivenbark, 10, daughter of Tim and Louise Riven-bark of Bolivia, dance.

•Danette Marie Hillard, 12, daughter of Steve and Sue Causey of Longwood, vocal.

Six young women are vying for Teen Miss, as follows:

•Theresa Suzanne Jones, 13, daughter of Ed and Sue Jones of Ocean Isle Beach, gymnastics routine.

•Robin Campbell, 13, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Campbell of Ocean Isle Beach, tap dance.

•Leslie Dianne Causey, 16, daughter of Bobby and Jane Causey, vocal.

•Tanya Renee Hewett, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frankie Hewett of Shallotte, vocal.

•Elizabeth Catherine Baxter, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baxter of Southport, piano solo.

•Tammy Lynn Reynolds, 15, daughter of R.L. and Patricia Sullivan of Leland, piano solo.

The pageant is sponsored by the non-profit Scholarship Pageants of Brunswick County Inc., which also produces the county's official Miss North Carolina preliminary pageant.

According to spokesman David Clegg, the purpose of the Junior and Teen Miss Pageant is to provide an opportunity for young women ages 10 to 16 to become familiar with the Miss America scholarship program and to encourage interest in future Miss America preliminary competi-
