

Join the fun Oct. 22 and 23 at the 8th Annual North Carolina Oyster Festival, held at Seaside at the intersection of Hwys. 904 and 179.

This year's festival will be a 2-day event featuring seafood delights, arts and crafts, live musical entertainment, and the famous Oyster Shucking Contest. A major draw for the festival is oysters, cooked in a variety of ways. A new addition this year will be shrimp, along with the usual fried fish, coleslaw and hushpuppies.

8th ANNUAL NORTH CAROLINA OYSTER FESTIVAL

OCTOBER 22 & 23, 1988
SOUTH BRUNSWICK ISLANDS

Sponsored by the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce, this year's Oyster Festival will be held about two weeks later than usual to ensure a plentiful supply of fresh, local oysters. Since the N.C. Festival By The Sea takes place the following weekend, participating accomodations will offer 10 days/9 nights for the price of 8 days/7 nights during Festival Week. Contact a Chamber member motel, campground or real estate agent for further information on this festival package.

Oyster Festival T-shirts and sweatshirts are already on sale at the Chamber of Commerce and selected locations.

OCTOBER IS FESTIVAL MONTH

in the South Brunswick Islands

After the Oyster Festival, look forward to the annual North Carolina Festival By The Sea at Holden Beach the next weekend, Oct. 28 and 29.

Sponsored by the Greater Holden Beach Merchants' Association, this festival begins with a Halloween carnival on Friday night. Festivities continue Saturday with a parade, arts and crafts show, fun runs, horseshoe pitching, long-driving contest, sand sculpture, gospel music, Bridge games . . . and lots of food!

But save some energy, 'cause the fun continues at the street dance Saturday evening.

Festival By The Sea T-shirts and sweatshirts are already on sale at several locations at Holden Beach.

So plan to spend Oct. 22-29 in the beautiful South Brunswick Islands and enjoy the Oyster Festival and the Festival By The Sea!
