Melbourne Church Will Visit

BY BARBARA T. HEWETT
 Rev. Kirby Frink and the St. James Church family of Melbourne, Fla., will return to Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church in Thomasboro on Saturday, Aug. 20, for two days of joint worship.

An 8 p.m. welcome service and dinner are planned Saturday. Rev. Samuel Stanley, host pastor, will give the sermon. The music ministry will be by Pleasant View Missionary Baptist Church and the host church.

On Sunday the 11 a.m. worship service will be led by the visitors from St. James, most of whom are descendants of the late Andrew and Sara Frink, natives of Thomasboro.

Following the Sunday service, a fellowship luncheon will be served in the church dining hall. The public is invited.

CHURCH ACTIVITIES

Center Dedication Is Sunday

Dr. Roy Smith, executive director and treasurer of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, will be the guest speaker for the dedication of the Brunswick Baptist Association Resource Center.

The dedication service will be held Sunday, Aug. 21, at Supply Baptist Church at 2:30 p.m.

The resource center, which is located north of Supply on U.S. 17, will be open for touring following the service, said Rev. Bryan Doshier, moderator of the association. The center includes three conference/class rooms, associational offices, a library, offices for the director of missions and secretary, and kitchen.

Phase I is completed and paid for, Doshier said, including furnishings and landscaping. Painting and carpet installation is the only work remaining on the second phase, completion of the second story.

Churches Plan Dinner

Representatives of Free Will Baptist churches in New Hanover, Brunswick and Onslow counties meet Friday at 7:30 p.m. at Folkstone Free Will Baptist Church in Folkstone to plan a joint dinner to benefit the church-supported Mount Olive College at Mount Olive.

Plans for the annual dinner will be finalized, including a date. Since the dinners began in 1963, they have provided approximately $2.8 million in unrestricted gift support for the college.

What To Do When You've Decided

BY DICKY POWELL
 BRUNSWICK FUNERAL SERVICE

When you've made your decision, tell us exactly what funeral service you wish. We'll help you put it in writing. Then there's no doubt about your expressed wishes, and there will be no family disputes or involvement by others who may not know what you want. There will be no questions such as: Is it what he or she wanted? Did we do the right thing? Did we spend too much or too little?

We'll provide you with information so you can make choices and we'll help you choose a payment plan that fits your budget.

Give us a call for complete details.
