

Couples Club Names Leaders

Thelma Dunn of Boiling Spring Lakes will lead the Guys and Dolls Homemakers Extension Club during the coming year.

Other new officers for the couples club are Jo Di Carlo, vice president; Alda Lewis, secretary; and Russ Perkis, treasurer. They will serve through September 1989.

The club ended its 1987-88 year with a September picnic at the home of Russ and Alice Perkis, with Mrs. Perkis presiding and a devotional by Harold Hoy, chaplain.

Program of Work Committee appointments for the coming year are as follows: Jean Robinson, citizenship; Ed Robinson, housing and energy; Harold Hoy, safety; Anna Groves, international; Alice Perkis, health and nutrition; Jo Di Carlo, cultural arts; and Al Di Carlo, publicity. Appointments is still to be made for chairpersons of the family life and family resources committees.

New members Neil and Anna Groves of Boiling Spring Lakes were welcomed.

During the business meeting, Bill Dunn reported on the success of a bipartisan pigpicking for seniors and announced that the local United Way campaign is seeking contributions of $1 per person from each senior citizen, payable to Ouida Hewett at the Volunteer and Information Center (VIC) office.

VIC is also collecting Christmas gifts for needy families, with more gifts needed this year for men and boys, and is seeking volunteers to cut food coupons for needy families.

It was also announced that the Brunswick County Parks and Recreation Department is considering formation of a stage players group and a group for widows and widowers, and is planning a trip to Colonial Williamsburg.

A bus trip to the N.C. State Fair is set for October 17. Tickets are free for seniors; bus fare will depend on the number of people going.

County extension homemakers will hold their annual achievement night on Oct. 27, with a reception for distribution of awards.

From July 25 through Sept. 25, Guys and Dolls members accumulated 202 volunteer service hours.

Their next event is an Oct. 5 cruise aboard the J.R. Maffitt.

MRS. STACY COLE BROWN
... Anna Elizabeth Benton

Benton, Brown Vows Are Exchanged

Anna Elizabeth Benton of Leland and Stacy Cole Brown of Wilmington were married Oct. 1 in a 3 p.m. candlelight ceremony at Mt. Carmel Pentecostal Freewill Baptist Church at Shallotte Point.

Rev. Tim Norris officiated the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Kirby W. and Elizabeth L. Benton of Leland. The groom is the son of Benjamin C. and Glenda H. Brown of Wilmington.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length formal gown of silk organza with bodice, sleeves, sheer overskirt and train trimmed in lace.

A lace-trimmed veil of illusion reached to her fingertips in front and to the floor in back, and was attached to a satin portrait hat.

She carried a cascading bouquet of peach roses with babies' breath and white carnations.

Barbara Huff of Wampee, S.C.,

was her niece's matron of honor. She wore a cream satin tea-length gown with lace collar and elbow-length sleeves accented with bows.

Bridesmaids Pamela Huff of Wampee, S.C., and Sarah Ganey of Wilmington wore peach satin gowns styled identically to that of the matron of honor.

The flower girl, Amanda Lanier of Shallotte, wore a full-length dress of cream satin with lace trim.

Bruce Brown of Wilmington was his brother's best man. Ushers were Chuck Willis and Tommy Roderick, both of Wilmington. They wore white tuxedos with peach bow ties and cummerbunds.

Wedding music was provided by Sherry Norris of Wilmington and Tim and Debra Watson of Shallotte.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church.

The couple will live at Carolina Beach.

Causey Elected To State Post

Gwendolyn Causey of Supply has been elected vice president of the North Carolina Society of the United States Daughters of 1812. She was installed at the society's state council meeting held in Raleigh on Sept. 24.

Also among the new officers is Abbie Bitney of Southport, the state society's new registrar, who was unable to attend the council meeting.

Mrs. Causey is a member of the Snap Dragon Chapter.

Other Brunswick County women attending the meeting were Lucille Blake of Leland and Theodocia Clemmons of Supply.

The society's purposes include preservation of historical documents and relics, marking of historic sites and increasing public awareness of heroic deeds of those who helped to form the nation during the 30-year period between the end of the American Revolution and the end of the War of 1812. Membership is open to women who are lineal descendants of persons who rendered civil, military or naval service to the nation between 1784 and 1815.

Lions Slate 'Service Day'

Shallotte Lions are sponsoring "World Lions Service Day" at The Brunswick Hospital on October 8 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., with a visit from the American Red Cross Bloodmobile as well as several free services.

On World Service Day Lions all over the world simultaneously show appreciation for their communities.

Shallotte Lions will be coordinating free blood pressure checks by the hospital's staff, eye care information provided by Carolina Eye Associates and a drawing for a $50 grocery certificate from Piggly-Wiggly.

In turn, those who attend Service Day can also show appreciation for their community by donating blood at an on-site American Red Cross Bloodmobile station, indicated spokesman Jess Parker.

Most individuals age 17 and older who are in good health will qualify as a donor. Those with questions can bring information on their medical condition and medication for the bloodmobile team to review.
