Carolers To Perform At Briarcliffe Mall

Briarcliffe Mall

Caroling, an integral part of Christmas for many years in many countries, is also going to be a part of the Christmas festivities at Briarcliffe Mall this year.

Anyone that has actually gone caroling at Christmas remembers those cold nights with red noses and frozen feet as carolers stood outside singing the joyous songs of Christmas.

Those fond memories can be rekindled at Briarcliffe this year, only this time you can forget the cold feet, hands and noses because the caroling will take place inside the mall.

Eight caroling dates have been announced by the mall with eight different groups participating.

"We begin the caroling with choral groups on Thursday, Dec. 1 and end it on Monday, Dec. 19," said Kelly Conlon, assistant marketing director of the mall. "We have a diversity of groups coming in, so each of the performances will be interesting and completely different."

The Coastal Carolina Concert & Gospel Choir will kick off the activities Dec. 1., followed by Low Country High Steppers & Singers on Dec. 5, North Myrtle Beach Band & Choral Group on Dec. 8, Langston Youth Choir on Dec. 9, Myrtle Beach High School Seahawk Singers on Dec. 12, West Conway Middle School on Dec. 13, Myrtle Beach Middle School on Dec. 14, Shallotte Middle School on Dec. 15, Langston Adult Choir on Dec. 16 and Living Faith World Outreach Church on Dec. 19.

Each of the performances will take place at 7 p.m. The performances on Dec. 9 and 16 will take place at 7 p.m. and 8 p.m.

Coastal Carolina Concert & Gospel Choir, Low Country High Steppers & Singers and Living Faith World Outreach Church performers will stroll through the mall while singing. The rest of the groups will perform in the mall corridor near Wings on the Intra-coastal Waterway side of the mall.
