

Henderson, Armour Are Wed

Former Ash resident Patricia Inman Henderson and Robert John Armour, both of Rochester, N.Y., were married Nov. 25 at the Hilton in Myrtle Beach, S.C.

The 6 p.m. double-ring ceremony was officiated by Sen. Bud Long. Music for the ceremony was provided by pianist Larry Green.

The bride was given in marriage by her sons, David Henderson of Rochester, Martin Henderson and Darrell Henderson, both of Wilmington. They also served as ushers.

Best man was the groom's brother, Michael Armour. Rosa Lee Bland of Longwood was maid of honor. The groom's daughter, Jeannine Armour of Rochester, was a junior bridesmaid.

The bride wore an informal gown of ivory English lace over a peach satin chemise, with a wedding band collar, dolman sleeves with wrist cuffs and pearl closures and intermission length skirt with a sweep train. Her short, pearl-dusted pouf veil was attached to a V-shaped pearl headband with a floral and pearl spray accent. She carried a cascade of white calla lilies, white roses, white freesia and white borvardia.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Hilton. Disc jockey Bill Albert of North Myrtle Beach, S.C., played music from the 1950s and 1960s.

The couple will live in Rochester.

Couple To Wed This Saturday

Eloise and Dale Rivenbark of Shallotte have announced the upcoming marriage of their daughter, Debbie Cooker, to Philip Kinlaw, son of Gene and Cecilia Kinlaw of Shallotte.

The wedding will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday in Letties Grove Pentecostal Freewill Baptist Church of Shallotte, with a reception afterward in the church fellowship hall. Friends and relatives are invited.

Members Visit VA Hospital

Members of Calabash VFW Post 7288 and its Auxiliary visited with patients at the V.A. Medical Center in Fayetteville on Saturday, Dec. 10, taking fruits and cupcakes and money to finance upcoming bingo games.

Auxiliaries, accompanied by Santa Claus, will visit with residents of Brunswick Village residential care facility in Shallotte on Dec. 19, bringing fruit and caroling.

Because of the Christmas holiday, said spokesman Mary Benes, the Auxiliary meeting will be changed to Wednesday, Dec. 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the post. Members will prepare Christmas baskets for the needy.

The regular schedule resumes in January; with the year to begin with a New Year's Eve party at the VFW Building. Cost is $10 per person for members and their guests. Included are music, favors and food. Reservations should be made no later than Dec. 20 by contacting Harold or Carol Daigneau, 579-4544.

Perkis Is Named Extension Club's Member Of The Year

Former club President Alice Perkins received a gift certificate when honored as member of the year by the Guys and Dolls Extension Homemakers' Club at its November meeting.

The meeting, which was held at the county complex in Bolivia, was hosted by club President Thelma Dunn and her husband, Bill.

Members Jean and Ed Robinson received certificates from Lila Yarbrough of Lower Cape Fear Hospice for their service to the organization.

Home Economics Extension Agent Mary Russ presented a program on simple items that can be made for patients in hospitals and nursing homes. She also offered tips on taking food to patients and emphasized that food should first be approved by the patients' dieticians.

In her health committee report, Ms. Perkins discussed lithotomies as a method to remove gallstones. Also, Jack Ogden reported that club members repaired one bicycle and were working on another one for Brunswick County Home Missions to give to needy children at Christmas. The quilt show committee suggested that all extension clubs make crib quilts for the 1989 Quilt Show, some of which will later be donated to the Ronald McDonald House. The quilt show will be held at Shallotte Middle School on April 8, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and April 9, from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

It was reported that club members accumulated 297½ hours of volunteer service between Sept. 26 and Nov. 28.

The club's Christmas party will be held on Dec. 11 at 1 p.m., at the Sandfiddler Restaurant, Southport.

Sunset Sands Club Plans Decorations

The talk was of holiday decorations when the Sunset Sands Garden Club met Dec. 8 at Piper's Restaurant, Sand Piper Bay Golf Course.

Guest speaker Ella Perry demonstrated to the 19 members present how to make arrangements for the holidays using local natural materials.

Hostesses Mary Walsh and Jessie Helms served a light luncheon and members exchanged gifts.

The club has decorated Sea Trail Park and invites the public to tour.
