

Wilson, Stout To Wed

The children of Carolyn Ann Wilson of Holden Beach and Randy Dale Stout of Ash have announced their parents' upcoming marriage. The wedding will be held on Aug. 5 at 4 p.m., at Sharon United Methodist Church on Holden Beach Road. Friends and relatives of the couple are invited.

Births Todd

Carson and Sabrina Todd of Route 5, Shallotte, have announced the birth of their third daughter, Suzie Jane Todd.

On arrival at 7:57 p.m. June 27 at The Brunswick Hospital, she weighed 7 lbs., 2 oz., and was 20 inches long.

She joins Sylvia, 12, and Tabatha, 4. Grandparents are Mrs. Edith Hege of Shallotte and the late Donald Hege and Thelma and Lee Todd of Shallotte.

Jasper

Rosa Green and Lynndell Jasper of Route 4, Shallotte, are the parents of a son, Bryan Lynndell Jasper.

Born at 9:25 a.m. June 24 in The Brunswick Hospital, he weighed 4 lbs., 14 oz., and was 19 inches in length.

He joins siblings Jessica, Marlena and Lashonda.

Maternal grandparents are Wilbur and Bonnie Green of Shallotte. Paternal grandparents are Charlie and Lorine Wigfall of Spring Valley, N.Y.

Local VFW Units Win Awards

Two local VFW posts were recently recognized for accomplishments during the past year.

Holden Beach Post No. 8866 won the Billy Ray Cameron Award at the state convention for Veterans of Foreign Wars, held June 22-25 at the Four Seasons Holiday Inn in Greensboro.

Ladies Auxiliary President Bertie R. Cailan accepted the award on behalf of the post. The plaque is presented to the post which donates at least $1 per member to the

Sing To Help Tri-Beach VFD

A gospel sing set for Saturday, July 8, will benefit the Tri-Beach Volunteer Fire Department.

The sing begins at 7 p.m. at the fire station. It will feature music by The Macedonia Trio of Columbus County, Von Ferguson and the Coastal Voices and Gene Pinkerton.

No admission will be charged; however, donations will be accepted, said spokesman Marcia Rabon of the Tri-Beach VFD Ladies Auxiliary, which is sponsor of the event.

The concert had been scheduled for June 17, but was postponed because of an electrical storm that could have damaged the musicians' sound equipment.

Dinner's On House For Top Volunteers

For the first time since the event began, Brunswick County's outstanding volunteers won't have to buy their own meal at the annual Brunswick County Volunteer Information Center awards banquet.

A grant will cover the cost of award nominees' meals at this year's dinner, which will be held 6 p.m. Saturday, July 15, at Bolivia Elementary School.

County commissioners have also been invited as guests.

Percy Woodard, the newly elected chairman of VIC's board of directors, will serve as master of ceremonies. Outgoing chairman Jamie Orrock, director of the Brunswick County Department of Social Services, will be the speaker. Stephanie Hewett of Supply will entertain with a medley of songs.

More than 100 volunteers will be honored with certificates, plaques, pins and other awards. Sixteen volunteers will receive special recognition—four as governor's award recipients and 12 as VIC award winners.

Recipients were selected by the Newcomers Club.

Cameron fund, which is used to provide educational scholarships for deserving children of veterans, said Publicity Chairman Regina Britton.

The auxiliary also was recognized for having the greatest percentage increase of membership for the current year in the state.

Merle Goldsberry of the Calabash VFW Post No. 7288 accepted an award for that post's participation in the sale of Buddy Poppies and for community services rendered.

Lt. Col. Oliver North, introduced by U.S. Sen. Jesse Helms, was as surprise guest speaker.

Three Get Academy Appointments

Three Brunswick County men have been appointed to U.S. military academies by U.S. Congressman Charles G. Rose and will report this month.

Having three appointees from Brunswick County in one year is "quiet unusual," according to Vivian Posey, a caseworker in Rose's office for the past five years whose responsibilities include handling academy appointments.

"I can't recall having that many before from such a rural county," she said last Friday in a telephone interview. "In a Cumberland or New Hanover County it's not so unusual."

The appointees are Hans C.E. Bean, David S. Jones and James K. Bryant II.

Bean, a graduate of South Brunswick High School, will attend the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy at King's Point, N.Y. He is the son of

Mr. and Mrs. David H.N. Bean of Southport.

Bryant, whose permanent address is Route 2, Supply, will attend the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. A graduate of Bethel High School in Hampton, Va., he is the son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. James K. Bryant.

Jones, a graduate of Cape Fear

Academy in New Hanover County, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Jones of Leland. Jones will be attending the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.

Completes Course

U.S. Marine Pvt. Casey A. Gore of Route 1, Ash, recently completed the four-week basic landing support course conducted at Marine Corps Engineer School, Camp Lejeune.

He received instruction in landing support fundamentals, generators, camouflage and field fortifications, mine warfare, demolitions and amphibious and air operations.

He is a 1984 graduate of West Brunswick High School in Shallotte.

Completes Training

Army Reserve Pvt. Clifton Woods

has completed basic training at Fort Dix, N.J. He received instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

Woods is the son of Zola and Wilton Woods of Route 5, Shallotte. He is a 1987 graduate of West Brunswick High School.

Finishes Course

Sgt. Charles H. Knox Jr., son of Blanchie and Charles H. Knox Sr., of Route 2, Leland, has completed a nine-week drill sergeant course at Fort Jackson, S.C.

A 1982 graduate of Vance High School in Henderson, Knox received instruction in leadership principles, stress management, conducting physical training, counseling sessions and other subject areas.

VFW Auxiliary Elects Officers

New officers have been elected for the Ladies Auxiliary to Calabash VFW Post No. 7288.

Catherine Corrick will serve as president. Other officers will be Helen George, senior vice president; Florence Cook, junior vice president and youth activities; Kathleen Soenichsen, secretary; Francis Wrenn, treasurer; Barbara Barley, guard; Dot Hoffman, conductress and community; Joan McMahon, chaplain and hospital chairperson; Jean Fatogoni, three-year trustee and cancer project chairperson; Mitzi Bernatzky, two-year trustee; Mary Benes, one-year trustee and public relations; Ruth Muth, historian. Carol D'Aigneau, Florence Cook and Jean Mancuisi will serve as investigating chairpersons.

On June 10, a group from the post took gifts of food, birthday cards with money and bingo game money to the V. A. Hospital and visited with hospitalized veterans. Making the trip were Carol and Harold D'Aigneau, Helen and Bill George, Florence Cook and Mickey Levandowsky.

Auxiliary members play bingo with Brunswick Village residents the first three Mondays of every other month, with Holden Beach VFW Auxiliaries filling in alternate months.
