Carpenter Yard Is Chosen

The Holden Beach Beautification Committee has selected the yard of Ben and Lib Carpenter at 118 Lion's Paw Drive as the Yard of the Month for September. The colorful front yard is landscaped with red and white geraniums, oleander and euonymus and features a beautiful lawn. Pictured are the Carpenters, and in the center, beautification committee zone captain Charlotte Nolte.

Hampstead Honors Spots

One of the smallest fish in the sea will reign supreme next month at the North Carolina Spot Festival at Hampstead. The 26th annual event is scheduled for Sept. 29 through Oct. 1.

The festival starts Friday, Sept. 29, with the N.C. Spot Festival Princess Pageant and a street dance.

On Saturday, festival goers can enjoy arts and crafts, a security police guard dog demonstration and the festival's famous spot fish dinner. A golf tournament is also on the schedule of events.

All festival proceeds will support the Hampstead Community Building, the Hampstead Volunteer Fire Department and the Pender East Rescue Squad.

For more information, contact the Greater Hampstead Chamber of Commerce at 270-9642.
