

Reaves, Greene Vows Exchanged

Dana Lenoria Reaves and Christopher Lee Greene were married Saturday, Aug. 26, in a 6 p.m. ceremony at the home of William and Zida Kibler of Shallotte. The Rev. Robert Hargrove officiated the double ring ceremony.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Verbie Greene of Candor. The bride is the daughter of Gail Moore Reaves of Shallotte.

She was given in marriage by her mother and escorted by her brother-in-law, Jim Roberts of Helen, Ga.

The bride wore a formal gown of white satin with a scooped neckline, bodice and tapered sleeves applied with reembroidered lace, sequins and seed pearls and a full skirt that formed a cathedral train. The skirt was accented with lace appliques. Bodice and skirt were edged with scalloped lace.

Her elbow length veil of illusion was attached to a headband with floral accents and a looped cluster of pearl beading.

She carried a cascading bouquet of Lady Di roses, spring rye, babies' breath and ivy.

Her sister, Patty Roberts of Helen, Ga., was matron of honor. Another sister, Annette Reaves of Shallotte, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Adonica Alvarado of New Mexico and LaDane Faulk of Shallotte.

The bride's cousins, Crystal Moore and Alex Moore of Shallotte, were flower girl and ring bearer, respectively.

The bride's attendants wore peach-colored tea length gowns with ivory lace and ivory accessories and carried nosegays of peach, white, pink and blue flowers.

Chad McLeod of Shallotte was best man. Ushers were H.L. Holmes of Shallotte, Douglas Greene of Candor, brother of the groom, and Jeff Baslow of Wilmington.

Music was provided by Tim and Deborah Watson of Holden Beach. Vivian Thomas of Calabash directed the wedding.

The foyer of the Kibler home was decorated with an arching candelabra, globe candles with floral sprays, a unity candle and a lace-covered kneeling bench.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Kibler residence. Serving were Marsha Caizson, Rose Long, Doris Ward, Elizabeth Benton and LaDane Schultz.

The bride is a graduate of West Brunswick High School and is employed at Holmes Florist. The groom is a graduate of East Montgomery High School in Candor. He is employed by Holco Development.

Search Begins For Miss Brunswick 1990

Cheryl Prewitt, Miss America 1980, will serve as mistress of ceremonies for the 1990 Miss Brunswick County Scholarship Pageant.

Applications are now being accepted for the pageant, which will be staged Saturday, Nov. 18, at Hatch Auditorium on the grounds of the N.C. Baptist Assembly, Caswell Beach.

The pageant is open to women ages 17 to 26 who are permanent residents or full-time students in Brunswick County, said David Clegg, president of Scholarship Pageants of Brunswick County, Inc.

Competition areas and their relative value are private interview, 30 percent; talent, 40 percent; swimwear, 15 percent; and evening gown, 15 percent.

The new Miss Brunswick County will represent the county in the 1990 Miss North Carolina Pageant. She will succeed the reigning Miss Brunswick County, Tamala Carol Grissett of Grissettown.

Cheryl Prewitt is a resident of Tulsa, Okla., and is a nationally recognized speaker, entertainer and designer.

Scheduled to appear on the program in addition to Ms. Prewitt are Jennifer Anne Sauder, Miss Florida 1987, and Kelly Dawn Fletcher, Miss North Carolina 1989. Ms. Sauder was a top 10 finalist in the 1988 Miss America Pageant.

Contestant applications may be obtained by contacting Clegg at 253-4331, or Karen Moshoures, 754-4020; or by writing to Scholarship Pageants of Brunswick County Inc., P.O. Box 249, Bolivia, N.C. 28422. The deadline to apply is Oct. 6.

An official Miss America preliminary event, the pageant is sponsored by Scholarship Pageants of Brunswick County Inc., a non-profit civic corporation.
