The one-mile fun run begins the races at 7:30 a.m., followed by the 5-kilometer (3.1 miles) and 10-kilometer (6.2 miles) events that start together after the conclusion of the one-mile race.

Men's and women's first-place finishers in the one-mile run will receive trophies, as will the age division winners in both the 5-K and 10-K events.

Second and third-place finishers, male and female, in each of the five age groups in the 5-K and 10-K races will receive ribbons.

Age groups (in the 5-K and 10-K runs only) include 16-and-under, 17-19, 30-45, 46-59 and 60 and over.

Registration fee is $8 per person.

Runners registered prior to Oct. 19 receive a free Oyster Festival short-sleeve tee-shirt along with their entry fee. Although entrants after Oct. 19 will not receive a shirt with registration, there will be plenty available for sale at the festival site at Seaside (intersection of N. C. Highways 179 and 904).

The race course is a flat, out-and-back design, along Ocean Blvd. West with aid stations and split times available at the one and three-mile points.

In addition, there will also be post-race refreshments available and an awards ceremony at the event's conclusion.

For further information contact the South Brunswick Islands Chamber of Commerce (919-754-6644) or write for entry forms to: P.O. Box 1380, Shallotte, N. C. 28459.
