

Coast Toasters Mark 2nd Year

Coast Toasters Toastmasters Club celebrated its second anniversary with a buffet dinner Jan. 21 at Sandpiper Golf and Country Club near Sunset Beach.

Guest speaker was Bill Mintz, a native of Columbus County and a former District 37 (North Carolina) Governor of Toastmasters International. A humorous speaker, Mintz is a member of the Monday Six-O Club in Charlotte.

Susan Eggert of Shallotte was honored as the club's 1989 Toastmaster of the Year. Immediate Past President Alan Holden presented the award, which recognizes outstanding contributions to the club in terms of meeting participation, leadership and membership development.

Holden also recognized 1990 club officers, while Marcia Warring, toastmaster for the evening, recognized the club's charter members.

Coast Toasters is one of two Toastmasters International clubs in Brunswick County. Members meet at 7 a.m. each Tuesday in Shallotte at the Calvary Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. Membership is open to any member of the community interested in improving his or her communication and leadership skills.

MR. AND MRS. IRVIN RAY PIVER
... Lisa Faye Anderson

Anderson, Piver Vows Are Spoken

Lisa Faye Anderson and Irvin Ray Piver were married Sunday, Jan. 7, at 3 p.m. at Soldier Bay Baptist Church in Ash.

The Rev. Charles A. Smith, uncle of the bride, officiated the double-ring candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Anderson of Ash. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Richard I. Piver of Stuart, Fla.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of white satin and crystalline organza. It featured a jewel necklace and fitted bodice adorned with Alencon lace and embroidered lace beaded and sequined. The slightly dropped basque waist was accented with crystal and pearl droplets. The skirt was accented front and back with jeweled appliques. The deep V-back was draped with strands of pearls. A double tier of crystalline ruffles formed the front hemline, cascading into a layered, ruffled cathedral train.

She carried a bouquet of dark pink roses, pink dogwood and babies' breath, accented with pearls, pink ribbons and white lace streamers.

Honor attendant was Delois Long of Ash, aunt of the bride. Other attendants were Lynn A. Humphrey of Ash and Sonya Parker of Rose Hill, sisters of the bride; Donna C.

Smith of Ash, cousin of the bride; Brenda Piver of Ash, sister-in-law of the groom; and Daphne King of Ash, friend of the bride.

The attendants wore rose tae-length dresses made by Delois Long and wore pearl necklaces with matching earrings and bracelets.

The bride's honor attendant carried a long-stemmed pink rose and other attendants carried long-stemmed pink carnations. Each stem was accented with babies' breath and dark pink ribbon streamers.

Crystal Rae Piver of Ash, niece of the groom, served as flower girl. Her attire was identical to that worn by other attendants.

Brian Heath Long of Ash, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer. He wore a charcoal gray tuxedo with tails, with rose accessories.

The groom chose his brother, Barry Piver of Ash, as best man. Groomsmen were Don A. Smith, cousin of the bride; Ricky D. Smith, cousin of the bride, Jeremy King and Whitney King, cousins of the groom, and Alan Ward, friend of the couple. All are from Ash, except for Smith, who lives in Greensboro.

The groomsmen wore charcoal gray tuxedos with rose accessories, and the groom wore a charcoal gray tuxedo with tails with rose accessories.

Music was provided by Sandy Duran of Shallotte.

Mrs. Betty Gore of Ash, aunt of the groom, directed the wedding. Monica Gore, cousin of the groom, attended the register.

On Saturday, Jan. 6, the groom's parents entertained the bridal party with a rehearsal dinner at Zion Baptist Church. Assisting were Robie Piver, grandmother of the groom; Judy King, Beth Piver, Lena Mae Causey, Betty Gore, Marcell Wilbur Causey, Betty Gore, Marcell Wilbur, aunts of the groom; and Bill Wilbur, Frank Causey and Wilbur Hewett, uncles of the groom.

After the ceremony, the groom's parents also hosted a reception in the Soldier Bay Baptist Church Fellowship Hall. Also hosting were Doris Gore, grandmother of the groom, and Judy King, Betty Gore, Marcel Wilbur, Beth Piver and Arlene Hewett, aunt of the groom.

Assisting with decorations for the wedding were Bobbie Piver, mother of the groom, and Judy King, Doris Gore and Betty Gore.

The groom is a 1982 graduate of West Brunswick High School, Shallotte, and is employed with Kevin Piver Construction Co.

The bride is a 1987 graduate of West Brunswick High School and is employed with Anderson & McLamb law firm.

Following a honeymoon to Orlando, Fla., the two are residing at Ash.
