Students Collect Recyclables

Sunset Beach Recycling Volunteer Marcia Warring (second from left) watches as Shallotte Middle School seventh-graders (from left) Lee Fenn, Jonathan Blackburn, John Clark and Amy Hewett load newspaper bundles last Wednesday on the last day of a two-week recycling contest between the seventh-grade science classes of Anna Rogers, Harvey Rash and Donna Crews. The project, which netted more than 8,400 pounds of recyclable materials, was coordinated by the Volunteers for Recycling organization at Sunset Beach. Rash's fourth-section science class won the contest. Prizes were a pizza party at Pizza Hut, Shallotte, and $25 from the Brunswick County Keep America Beautiful program.
