4-H'ers Cited For Records

Completes Course

Staff Sgt. Gena L. Curtis has completed a U.S. Army basic non-commissioned officer course aimed at helping her develop mid-level management skills to be used in supervising and training small groups of soldiers in combat specialties.

An Army recruiter with the U.S. Army Recruiting Battalion in Wilmington, she is the daughter of Elsa M. Smith of Route 2, Bolivia.

Listed At ECU

Tonnette Bristow of Leland has been named to the chancellor's list at East Carolina University, Greenville, for earning all A's during the fall 1989 semester.

Two Participate

Amy Pvt. 1st Class Anthony C. Murphy and Timothy E. Brown participated in operation "Just Cause" in Panama, which resulted in the ouster of Panamanian dictator Manuel Noriega.

Brown is an infantryman with the 504th Infantry Regiment at Fort Bragg. He is the son of Russell and Elizabeth D. Brown of Bolivia and a 1988 graduate of South Brunswick High School.

Murphy is a gunner in the 325th Infantry Regiment at Fort Bragg. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Cotter of Route 1, Leland, he is a 1989 graduate of North Brunswick High School.

Trull Graduates

Airman 1st Class Steven M. Trull has graduated from U.S. Air Force basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas. During the six weeks of training, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Franklin Trull of Leland, Trull is a 1988 graduate of North Brunswick High School.

Stanley Selected

Bonnie L. Stanley was recently selected as an Outstanding College Student of America for the 1989-90 school year. Selection was based on academic achievement, merit and involvement and leadership roles in community and school.

Stanley is a sophomore at East Carolina University in Greenville, where she is majoring in early childhood education. She is also an ECU Ambassador.

A 1988 graduate of West Brunswick High School, she is the daughter of Bun and Dorothy Stanley of Route 3, Shallotte.

Grissett Named

Former Brunswick County Finance Department employee Stacie Grissett assumed new duties April 16 as county personnel officer. She replaces former personnel officer Deborah L. Bowling, who resigned earlier this month to accept a position with American Family Life Assurance Company of Wilmington.

A Shallotte resident, Mrs. Grissett has been employed in the county Finance Department for the past 11 years. Before assuming the $21,780-per-year personnel post, she worked as the county's budget analyst, internal auditor and grants manager.

Mrs. Grissett attended Methodist College in Fayetteville and received a degree in business management from Shaw University of Raleigh through the college's Cape Program in Wilmington. She and her husband, Norvin Grissett, have two children, Ebony, 15, and D.J., 9.

CAISON BUTLER

Two Brunswick County 4-H'ers, Amy Caison of Supply and Tania Butler of Shallotte, were recently recognized for their outstanding 4-H cumulative records.

Caison was recognized as a state winner in the Marine Awareness Project area and also as a district runner-up in the Electric Program.

Butler was declared a district cumulative record winner in the Clothing Project area and a district runner-up in Consumer Education. The high school senior's projects document eight active years in 4-H.

A 4-H cumulative record provides a summary of a 4-H'er's growth and development in a project area and as a person, said Billy Privette, Brunswick County 4-H extension agent. It helps members to set goals and then strive to meet them. Citizenship and leadership activities are also judged as part of this competition.

Dance Students Win

Several local dance students were among the winners at the Showstoppers Regional Talent Competition held March 31 in Conway, S.C.

Megan Farmer of Shallotte won first place in the character routine solo division for ages six and under and also took third place in the photogenic division. Brandi Harrison of Ash placed third in the solo jazz division for ages six and under.

Allysun Abbott of Shallotte and Tiffany Skaggs of Ash placed second in duet jazz in the age nine division.

Kelly Griffin of Shallotte and Jennifer Rabon and Kelly Stepp of Holden Beach took third place in trio jazz in the age 12 division.

All of the students are eligible to compete in the East Coast Nationals which begin July 4.

Dead Loggerhead Washes Ashore

Beach-goers (from left) Kathy Davis of Greenville and Linda Dills of Charlotte inspect the body of a dead loggerhead turtle that washed ashore Sunday morning on the strand near Newport Street at Ocean Isle Beach. The five-foot-long sea turtle was partially entangled in a gill net. Ocean Isle Beach town employees buried the carcass near the dunes about a mile east of the Ocean Isle Fishing Pier Sunday around noon.

VOTE FOR SHERIFF
Republican Candidate
BRUNSWICK COUNTY

WILLIAM "BILL" SISK

Age: 53 • Married 37 years

4 children—2 sons who are police officers in Gaston County—one 10 years, the other 3 years

Mason, Shriner Military—US Air Force

To the citizens of Brunswick county:
I have listed the following which I believe qualify me to be your sheriff of Brunswick County.

- ★Presently employed as a police officer and training officer for my department in Long Beach, NC
- ★20 years of law enforcement experience
- ★5 years as a detective sergeant
- ★3 years as a line sergeant
- ★Up-to-date training and knowledge of enforcement laws.
- ★2 years college—Police Science
- ★1 year Baptist College
- ★2 advanced certificates from the Criminal Justice Commission of North Carolina:
 - The highest awards a police officer can receive.
 - One from the Sheriff's Association, Sheriffs Standards Division of NC
 - One from the Criminal Justice Commission of NC.
- ★I have served 5 years as a Deputy Sheriff, worked in the jail, civil courts and criminal division of enforcement.
- ★I will make a change for tougher enforcement to those who violate the criminal laws, more so to those who deal in drugs.
- ★I will have an open door policy in all departments of the Sheriff's Office.

I ask you for your support; your vote will elect me as your sheriff. Let's make a change May 5. Vote William "Bill" Sisk for Sheriff of Brunswick County.

Thank You,
Bill Sisk
