Stanley Receives Scholarship

Bonnie L. Stanley was recently awarded a full four-year scholarship from the N.C. Division of Veteran Affairs.

The scholarship is awarded to only 100 students in North Carolina each year. Selection is based on financial need and academic achievement. Applicants must have a parent who is a service veteran.

Miss Stanley is a rising junior at East Carolina University in Greenville and is majoring in early childhood education. She plans to earn a master's degree in child psychology.

She is the daughter of Bun and Dorothy Stanley of Route 3, Shallotte, and a 1988 graduate of West Brunswick High School.

Completes Course

Army National Guard Private Jeffery L. Harley has completed an Army motor transport operator course at Fort Dix, N.J.

During the course, students were trained in the operation and maintenance of military vehicles of less than 4 1/2 tons rated capacity. Instruction also was given in the transportation of personnel, equipment and supplies.

Harley is the son of Inez C. and Douglas W. Alexander of Route 1, Ash. He is a 1989 graduate of West Brunswick High School.

Attends Conference

Tripp Smith of Sunset Beach recently attended a counseling and pre-registration conference at The University of Mississippi.

The session for high school graduates and transfer students included testing sessions to determine career interests, orientation and instructional meetings, test interpretation, individual counseling and preparation of a class schedule for the fall semester, academic advising and pre-registration.

Balloon Arrives

Army Spec. Marsha C. Balloon has arrived for duty at Urlas Kasern, West Germany, as an equipment and parts specialist.

Balloon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Balloon of Route 4, Leland. She is a 1986 graduate of North Brunswick High School.

Trogdon Graduates

Pfc. Amy L. Trogdon graduated July 27 from eight weeks of basic training at Fort Dix, N.J., earning several honors.

She received the Soldier of the Cycle Award; the High Performance Award for Excellence; a certificate of achievement for basic rifle marksmanship; an award for outstanding achievement in the hand grenade assault course, and an award for placing in the top ten in the general three-mile run.

A graduate of Pfeiffer College, she is the daughter of Tencie B. Trogdon of Route 7, Shallotte, and the granddaughter of Evelyn Benton of Shallotte.
