Fourth Prep Grid Jamboree Scheduled In Wilmington

BY JOHNNY CRAIG

South Brunswick will be among six area grid teams participating in the fourth annual United Carolina Bank High School Football Jamboree scheduled for Friday, August 17, at Wilmington's Legion Stadium.

The Cougars, under the leadership of new head coach Bill Hewett, the former Whiteville veteran mentor, are in hopes of improving upon last year's 5-5 finish.

South will face Mideastern 4-A Conference member New Hanover in the first of three scrimmages scheduled. The evening begins at 6:30 p.m., with a punting and field goal kicking contest.

In other play following the South-New Hanover matchup, Hoggard will meet Whiteville and Lancy will face Wallace-Rose Hill.

Teams will play for the equivalent of one half (two quarters).

In addition to the scrimmages, six Jamboree scholarships will also be awarded, one per school. The scholarships are valued at $500 each and funded from the first $3,000 of gate receipts.

Last year approximately 3,500 fans attended. Admission this year is $3 per person.

Jamborees such as the one in Wilmington are super events for both players, coaches and fans. No where can prep football fans see as many teams in one evening and at one place as they can at a jamboree. Coaches get to evaluate players while also scouting possible future opponents while also picking up ideas for the season. And the players not only "get their feet wet" for the coming season but also get to see other teams play as well.

Last year West Brunswick participated in the Myrtle Beach—Sun Jews Jamboree—a showcase event played in the heart of one of South Carolina's prep football hotbeds.

It's just a shame the Trojans weren't invited back this year to the south-of-the-border event. It could be sour grapes from the South Carolina contingent after the 2-A Trojans (the only North Carolina team participating) went on to shutout a big 3-A Socastee team 7-0 in front of the home fans.

Mintz Looking Good For Dodgers

Former North Brunswick and Mount Olive College baseball star Stephen Mintz is doing it all for the Los Angeles Dodgers' Northwest Rookie League team in Yakima, Washington.

Mintz is playing both catcher and pitcher and excelling both on the mound and at the plate.

When pitching, Mintz relies on a 91 mile-per-hour fastball and a slider. At the plate, Mintz is hitting at a .308 pace including a 3-for-4 effort last week in one game as a designated hitter.

Used primarily as a shore reliever, Mintz has a 1-1 record with a 5.59 earned run average and 12 strikeouts in 9.2 innings.

Former South Brunswick catching star Wynn Beck is hitting at a .275 clip with the Madison, Wisconsin, Athletics. Beck has played in 80 games and belted six home runs and 41 RBIs. Madison is a member of the Midwest League and a Class A team with the Oakland Athletics organization.

Some Tricks Of The Trade

Cameron Kinlaw, left, and Cain Bellamy, both of Shallotte, practice their bike-riding skills last week in the parking lot of a Shallotte shopping center. With such tricks that they are capable of performing, they prove there's more than one way to ride a bike. However, it might not be advisable for everybody to attempt such bike tricks!
