

Oct. 12 Is Deadline To Enter Miss Brunswick County Pageant

The search is on for a new Miss Brunswick County. The 1991 Miss Brunswick County Scholarship Pageant will be staged Saturday, Nov. 17, at Hatch Auditorium on the grounds of the N.C. Baptist Assembly at Caswell Beach. The pageant is an official Miss America preliminary event, said David Clegg, president of Scholarship Pageants of Brunswick County, Inc., sponsor. This means the pageant winner will represent the county in the Miss North Carolina pageant next summer. The current title-holder is Wendy Gay Williams of Leland. She was a preliminary swimsuit winner, finalist and first runner-up in the Miss North Carolina 1990 pageant. Would-be contestants in the 1991 competition must be between the ages of 17 and 26 and be residents of Brunswick County, full-time students in the county, or employed full time in Brunswick County. Competition will be held in the areas of private interview, swimsuit, talent and evening gown. Applications may be obtained by writing to Scholarship Pageants of Brunswick County, 10000-607 Caswell Beach Road, Caswell Beach, NC 28465, or by calling 278-3868. The deadline to apply is Oct. 12.

Tommy and Annett Brown

Browns Renew Wedding Vows

Wanda Annett Hartsell Brown and Tommy Walter Brown of Laketree Shores, Ocean Isle Beach, renewed their wedding vows after 25 years of marriage in an Aug. 5 ceremony at Eastside Assembly, Shallotte.

The pastor, Bobby Causey, officiated the ceremony in which the couple exchanged vows and shared communion together. They were married Aug. 28, 1965, in Chesterfield, S.C.

Music was provided by Rodney Williams, who sang Hallelujah, Jesus, He Alone Is Our King and Wind Beneath My Wings. Bobby and Jane Causey sang God Gave Me You.

Mrs. Brown wore a tea-length, baby blue silk gown with a white bouquet of flowers and white heels. She carried two long-stemmed peach roses with lace and ribbons.

Brown wore a white sportcoat, pink shirt, navy blue pants and a peach boutonniere.

The couple's daughters, Tracey McKeithan and Amy Brown, served as matron and maid of honor respectively. The matron of honor wore a peach silk dress with a white brocade of flowers and white heels. She carried a long-stemmed peach rose. The maid of honor wore a light blue silk dress with a white bouquet of flowers and white heels.

The Browns' granddaughter, Laura McKeithan, wore a white christening dress and a headband of babies' breath and peach roses with ribbons and lace.

Mrs. Brown is the daughter of James and Mildred Hartsell of Albemarle. Her mother wore a Navy blue and white suit with pearls, and her father wore a dark gray suit.

Brown is the son of the late William Walter and Laura Ann Brown.

Guests included Mrs. Brown's friends, Lois Poplin of New London and Peggy Christy of Salisbury; her brother, Jimmy Hartsell of Albemarle, and his son, Eric; Lullie Dick of Charlotte, and her daughters, Teresa and Lisa; and Brown's sister, Kathryn Knotts of New Bern, and her husband, John, and daughter, Kathy.

A reception in the church fellowship hall with a wedding cake and refreshments followed the ceremony.

The Browns both graduated from North Stanly High School in New London. Mrs. Brown also graduated from Brunswick Technical College in 1981. Brown is a building contractor.

Whipkeys Earn Yard Honors

June and Darwin Whipkey of 36 Bayberry Circle received the September Yard of the Month honors from the Carolina Shores Garden Club for the combined beauty of a large sweet gum and pine trees, pine straw and beds of azaleas, spreading yews and hibiscus, and close to the house, a green lawn surrounded by pear, peach and apple trees.

Learn To Listen, Organize At Upcoming BCC Seminars

Upcoming seminars at Brunswick Community College on effective listening and effective organization are designed to meet the needs of small business owners and their employees.

Both sessions are sponsored by BCC's Small Business Center and are offered at no charge to participants since they are funded by a state grant. Both seminars will meet from 6:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on the BCC campus.

Management consultant Barry Mitsch returns with his "Effective Listening" seminar today (Sept. 20). In the session participants will learn to identify barriers to effective listening, to implement techniques to improve their listening ability. They will also examine strengths and weaknesses in their personal listening skills.

Business owners and employees can learn to become more productive with less stress with effective organizational skills. That's the topic of Margaret Kozik's seminar Tuesday, Sept. 25. Participants will learn about organizing and tracking the flow of information in an organization and how to integrate several management concepts. Setting priorities and gaining control of time will also be addressed.

To pre-register for either workshop, Small Business Center Director Velva Jenkins asks that interested persons call the center at 754-6961, 457-6329 or 343-0203.
